

The Hebrew Gospels from Sepharad

The Gospel according to

Mark

Translated by Justin J. Van Rensburg

Version 1.1 © May 2020

A literal translation of an amazing medieval
Hebrew manuscript in the Vatican Library,
Vat. Ebr. 100

Table of Contents

Introduction .....	iii
About the Translation .....	xiv
List of Abbreviations used in Footnotes .....	xvii
Translation of the Hebrew Gospel of Mark .....	1
Glossary .....	63

Introduction

The Hebrew Gospels from Sepharad<sup>a</sup> are the most interesting and amazing versions of the Gospels that we know of. They are full of insights into the original meaning of Yeshua's<sup>b</sup> life and teaching, and help to solve certain contradictions found in the Greek New Testament tradition.

For example, according to the Greek<sup>c</sup> manuscript tradition, Mark begins with: “The beginning<sup>d</sup> of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.”<sup>e</sup>

If this was the “beginning of the gospel,” then what about Old Testament believers? Did they never hear the Gospel? In the Greek tradition, Mark 1:1 is a good ‘proof’ text for dispensationalism – that supposedly there was no Gospel in the Old Testament, but that the New Testament is where and when the new dispensation of grace (and the Gospel) began!?

In Revelation, the New Testament clearly teaches that the Gospel is eternal.<sup>f</sup> In fact, the book of Hebrews records that the Gospel was preached to the Israelites in the wilderness: “For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them...”<sup>g</sup> In context, Paul is

---

<sup>a</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Spain’

<sup>b</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Jesus’

<sup>c</sup> For easy reading, most references to the Greek and Hebrew texts will be rendered in English.

<sup>d</sup> Emphasis in quotes used in this introduction was added for clarity

<sup>e</sup> Mar. 1:1, English Standard Version

<sup>f</sup> Rev. 14:6

<sup>g</sup> Heb. 4:2, King James Version

clearly speaking about the Israelites in the wilderness, so how could the “beginning of the gospel” be in the first century C.E.?

The Hebrew version of Mark, contained in Vat. Ebr. 100 solves the problem! It reads: “This is the Gospel<sup>a</sup> of Yeshua Mashiach, the son of Eloah.”<sup>b</sup> Thus the Hebrew Gospel of Mark says nothing of the like. This was not the beginning of the Gospel, but rather the fulfillment of the eternal Gospel as it was prophesied and proclaimed (preached) since the beginning of the world.

-----

Everyone interested in the Hebrew origin of New Testament books knows about the Shem Tov manuscripts containing the Gospel of Matthew, however hardly anyone knows of an authentic Hebrew manuscript of Mark. Although some<sup>c</sup> have suggested that Mark was originally written in Hebrew (based solely on clues from the Greek version), we now for the first time present a translation, together with actual manuscript evidence for the Hebrew origin of the Gospel of Mark. From a linguistic viewpoint, the Gospel of Mark contained in <sup>a</sup> “Gospel” literally means ‘good news,’ and is rendered as such in our actual translation.

---

<sup>b</sup> Mar. 1:1, translated from Vat. Ebr. 100

<sup>c</sup> Jean Carmignac – whose conclusion was based solely on the Greek version of Mark and how it facilitated easy translation back into Hebrew – said, “I was convinced that the Greek text of Mark could not have been redacted directly in Greek, and that it was in reality only the Greek translation of an original Hebrew...” (Emphasis added, quoted from The Birth of the Synoptic Gospels, translated from French by Michael J. Wrenn.) Claude Tresmontant believed that all four Gospels were originally written in Hebrew. Hugh J. Schonfield suggested the Hebrew or Aramaic origin of Matthew, Mark, John and Revelation in his introduction to his translation of the Du Tillet version of Matthew.

the Vat. Ebr. 100 manuscript cannot originate from the Greek, Aramaic or Latin versions, and contains many interesting proofs that the Gospel of Mark was originally written in Hebrew.

A good example is found in Mark 15:34. Let's start with the King James Version, a fairly literal translation of the Greek Textus Receptus:

“And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?”

What is quite obvious from this verse, is that Yeshua did not speak Greek on the cross. The Greek version of Mark first quotes a transliterated Aramaic phrase, and then interprets (or translates) it into Greek. This kind of phenomenon (transliterated Aramaic phrases in the Greek New Testament), together with the so-called ‘fact’ that the Jews no longer spoke Hebrew in the first century, has led to the commonly held (but erroneous<sup>a</sup>) view that Yeshua spoke Aramaic, and not Hebrew. Some have also claimed that the New Testament, including Mark, was originally written in Aramaic.

So let's look at Mark 15:34 in the Aramaic version – does it represent the original version of Mark? Here is this verse from the “Original Aramaic New Testament in plain English” translation, based on the Aramaic (Syriac) Peshitta:

---

<sup>a</sup> We don't mean to say that Yeshua never spoke Aramaic. Aramaic was also used in the first century, and we believe that Yeshua would have spoken Aramaic when communicating with Aramaic speakers. However, the Dead Sea Scrolls have shown that Hebrew was actually much more common in Israel in the first century than Aramaic.

“And in the ninth hour Yeshua cried out in a loud voice, and he said: “Eil, Eil, lemana Shabaqtani”, which is, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?””

Thus, even in the so-called ‘original’ Peshitta version of Mark, we find this phrase repeated twice! Why would Mark in an ‘original’ Aramaic Gospel need to quote an Aramaic phrase, and then translate Aramaic into Aramaic? If the Gospel of Mark was originally written in Aramaic, and if Aramaic was the language that Yeshua spoke on the cross, exactly why should the phrase be repeated twice? This does not appear very ‘original.’

Now, let us consider the Hebrew Gospel of Mark – does it shed any light on the subject? If Mark was originally written in the language that Yeshua spoke, there would of course be no reason to explain to the reader what Yeshua’s outcry meant, and we would find this phrase only once in verse 34, with no translation or explanation necessary. Here is a transcript of Mark 15:34 as contained in the Vat. Ebr. 100 manuscript:

"ובשעה תשיעית זעק [ישוע]<sup>a</sup> בקול גדול ואמ' / אלי אלי למה עזבתני"

Amazingly, this phrase occurs only once in verse 34 – and that in Hebrew, not Aramaic! Here is the English translation:

“And at the ninth hour Yeshua called out with a loud voice, ‘Eli,<sup>a</sup> Eli! Why did you forsake me?!”

---

<sup>a</sup> The spelling of Hebrew names is standardized in our transcripts and translations.

If this manuscript of Mark derived from the Greek, or Aramaic Peshitta, what would we find in Mark 15:34? We would first find the Aramaic phrase that Yeshua supposedly spoke, and then a translation into Hebrew,<sup>b</sup> but we don't. We only find a Hebrew phrase, which Yeshua quoted word for word from Psalm 22, and there is no reason for Mark to translate or explain it! This is one of many clear indications that the Gospel of Mark was first written in Hebrew, and this also shows that Hebrew is the language which Yeshua spoke on the cross!

-----

Another good proof for the authenticity of this Hebrew Gospel of Mark is 'gapping.' Although there are many kinds of gapping,<sup>c</sup> we only want to discuss one particular type here, called 'subject gapping.'

Subject gapping is very common in the Hebrew Old Testament. For example, a sentence (or paragraph) speaking of two or more persons, will only name each of them once (or perhaps twice), and afterwards simply refer to either as "he" or "she," without re-specifying their names. We even do this in English to some extent, but not as much as <sup>a</sup> "Eli" in Hebrew means "My El" or "My God" and the reason for transliterating this word instead of translating it into English, is to show why some bystanders thought that Yeshua was calling for 'Eli-Yahu' (Elijah).

---

<sup>b</sup> This is what we do find in Hebrew translations that are based on the Greek, e.g. the Delitzsch and Salkinson translations, and in non-authentic Hebrew manuscripts like Hébreu 131 from the National Library of France.

<sup>c</sup> E.g. subject gapping, object gapping, verb gapping, preposition gapping, etc.

they liked to do this in ancient / biblical Hebrew. In the Hebrew Old Testament this is done to the extent where one often needs to pay great attention to the context to determine exactly who the “he... he... he... he...” is referring to – the subject often changes without any warning. We say that the subject is ‘gapped,’ or ‘understood by context.’

In cases where confusion is very likely to occur, translators often inserted the implied subject to help their readers understand the text without any difficulty. When we compare two texts of the Bible in different languages, and find that a subject is gapped in the one but supplied in the other, we know that the less interpretive version is closer to the original. (This argument is especially strong in a context where confusion is likely to occur if the subject is not stated explicitly.) Let’s first look at a real example from the Hebrew Old Testament vs. the Greek Septuagint translation of the Old Testament, and then move on to an example in Mark.

Ruth 4:1 (Translated from Hebrew:) “So Boaz went up to the gate and sat there. And behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz had spoken was passing by, and he<sup>a</sup> said, ‘Turn aside...’”

So, who said “Turn aside...” – Boaz or the kinsman? At first, one would think that “he” refers to the just-mentioned “kinsman,” but if you keep reading, the speaker tells someone else to “come sit here” – so how could this kinsman who was passing by tell Boaz who was already sitting to “come sit here”?

---

<sup>a</sup> Some modern English translations follow the Greek tradition in this verse by inserting “Boaz” to help readers understand, without the need to carefully study the context.

Thus, the context makes it very clear that this was actually Boaz speaking, not the kinsman. In the original Hebrew version of Ruth, the subject (Boaz) is gapped, but we can still determine exactly who this was by looking at the context.

To avoid confusion, the Septuagint translation into Greek supplies the subject – it inserts the name Boaz into the sentence to read “And Boaz said” instead of “And he said.” The fact that the subject is gapped in Hebrew, while the subject is supplied in the Greek is clear evidence that the Hebrew is the original, while the Greek is merely a second-hand translation.<sup>a</sup>

Now, let’s look at a good example of this in the Hebrew Gospel of Mark:

Mark 9:20 according to Vat. Ebr. 100: “So they brought him before him. And when he saw him, immediately he inflicted him with pain, and threw him down before him, and he was confused<sup>b</sup>...”

This is typical Hebrew style. We need to pay careful attention to the context to know which he/him refers to Yeshua, which refers to the demon, and which to the demon-possessed man.

At first you might think that the “he” inflicting the man with pain was Yeshua, but that would make no sense in context. So if we keep reading we see that “he” also cast “him” before “him” The last pronoun clearly refers to Yeshua, so the “him” inflicting the man

---

<sup>a</sup> Any translator would naturally want to clarify the meaning of an ambiguous verse by inserting the implied subject, but no translator would remove the subject from a verse with a clear meaning, in order to make it more ambiguous.

<sup>b</sup> Or “disturbed”

with pain and casting him down before Yeshua has to refer to the demon in the man. The subject (demon / evil spirit) is gapped (understood) in the Hebrew.

Now, just like the Greek translation of Ruth 4:1 inserted the subject “Boaz” to remove the ambiguity of the verse, so the Greek version of Mark inserts the subject “spirit” into Mark 9:20 to help the Greek readers understand the verse more easily:<sup>a</sup> “And when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him...”<sup>b</sup>

This is undeniable<sup>c</sup> proof that the Hebrew version of Mark as contained in Vat. Ebr. 100 is more original than the Greek. It shows the Hebrew tradition to be the original and the Greek tradition to be a translation of the original Hebrew – just like the Septuagint translation of Ruth 4:1 discussed above.

-----

---

<sup>a</sup> The Greek language prefers not to rely on context as much as the Hebrew language.

<sup>b</sup> Mar. 9:20, King James Version

<sup>c</sup> Although this particular Hebrew manuscript of Mark often reads (supplies) “Yeshua” where other traditions simply read “he,” this is easily explained as the result of the Hebrew > Catalan > Hebrew translation process, which resulted in this Hebrew manuscript. However, one cannot even try to explain the gapped subject in the ambiguous context of Mark 9:20 to be the result of any translation or series of translations. Various other gapping examples have survived the Hebrew > Catalan > Hebrew translation process, including verb, noun, preposition, and subject gapping, which point to the literal translation process that had to be followed to preserve this Hebrew tradition. As explained above, gapping is characteristic of documents originally written in Hebrew.

Furthermore, the Vat. Ebr. 100 manuscript of Mark also contains some interesting and important differences from the Greek, Aramaic and Latin traditions. Let's look at one example from Mark 6:5:

We will begin with the English Standard Version, translated from the Greek: “And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them.”

The Greek tradition literally reads “he was not able to...” – and so do Hebrew translations like Delitzsch or Salkinson, which are based on the Greek.

So, is Yeshua really unable to do wonders when people do not have the required faith? Can we limit the ability of the Creator of heaven and earth by our lack of faith?

The Bible clearly teaches that the Creator is not limited, and that nothing is too difficult for him:

“Oh Adonai YHWH, behold, you yourself made the heavens and the earth by your great power and your outstretched arm – nothing is too difficult for you!”<sup>a</sup>

“Behold, I am YHWH, the Elohim of all flesh, will anything be too difficult for me?”<sup>b</sup>

In Genesis we see that YHWH promised Abraham that Sarah would give birth to a son, and even though Sarah initially doubted this promise, YHWH said that nothing was too hard for him:

---

<sup>a</sup> Jer. 32:17, translated from the Hebrew Masoretic text

<sup>b</sup> Jer. 32: 27, translated from the Hebrew Masoretic text

“...Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Will I indeed give birth, while I am old?’ Is anything too difficult for YHWH?”<sup>a</sup>

The Bible clearly teaches that Yeshua Mashiach is YHWH<sup>b</sup> and Elohim,<sup>c</sup> and that all things were created by him,<sup>d</sup> so how could he be “unable” to do “any mighty work”?

Does the Hebrew Gospel of Mark perhaps have the answer to our question? Here is the Hebrew phrase, copied from Vat. Ebr. 100:

<sup>e</sup>"...ולא רצה שם עשות שום פלא."

English translation: “And he did not want to do any wonder there...”

So, in this Hebrew Gospel of Mark we see that Yeshua was not unable to do wonders! Rather, he did not want to do wonders there “for he was amazed at the smallness of their faith.”<sup>f</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> Gen. 18:13-14, translated from the Hebrew Masoretic text

<sup>b</sup> Compare e.g. 1Tim. 6:15 (also Rev. 17:14 and 19:16) – Yeshua is “Lord of lords” – with Deu. 10:17 (also Psa. 136:1-3) “YHWH is... Lord of Lords.” An in-depth study of the Old Testament will reveal numerous other references to the Messiah being YHWH.

<sup>c</sup> The Hebrew word for “God” - The Messiah is called Elohim both in the Old and New Testaments – see e.g. Heb. 1:8-9 (quoted from Ps. 45:6-7), Mat. 1:23 (quoted from Isa. 7:14), Isa. 9:6-7, Joh. 1:1, Joh. 10:30 (where Yeshua said - in allusion to Isa. 9:6 and Deu. 6:4 – that “I and the Father are one”). Note that the Hebrew definition of “one” is often closer to the English definition of “united,” and thus, according to the Hebrew Tanach, two distinct persons can be one (Gen. 2:24).

<sup>d</sup> See e.g. Joh. 1:1-3 (especially in the Hebrew Vat. Ebr. 100 version), Col. 1:15-17, and Heb. 1:8-10 (Psa. 102:25). Already in Gen. 1:26 the Elohim who created Adam is plural: “Let us make man in our image, according to our likeness...”

<sup>e</sup> Mar. 6:5, Vat. Ebr. 100

<sup>f</sup> See Chapter 6:6

-----

So, even though the Hebrew tradition contained in the Vat. Ebr. 100 manuscript seems to have been preserved in the Catalan language,<sup>a</sup> and translated back into Hebrew, it is full of linguistic evidences showing that there is no way that it could possibly derive from the Greek or Aramaic, nor from Jerome's Latin version, as some have claimed. Thus, the Catalan version which it probably derived from, had to originate from an authentic Hebrew manuscript. There are many instances in which the Greek Gospels (which were later translated into Latin) could easily be a translation of a Hebrew

---

<sup>a</sup> Depending on the technique of translation, Hebrew can be preserved very well in another language, and the original Hebrew text can later be reclaimed. Aquila's Greek translation of the O.T. is a good example, when contrasted with the Septuagint Greek translation. The Septuagint translation often paraphrases the original Hebrew and uses various Greek words to translate a single Hebrew word. Sometimes one Greek word is used to translate multiple Hebrew words. The Septuagint further supplies prepositions etc. according to Greek grammar, it sometimes changes the word order to be readable in Greek, and it often supplies the subject. Thus, when attempting to translate the Greek Septuagint back into Hebrew, even the world's best scholars often disagree on how to translate a particular Greek word back into Hebrew, and therefore the original Hebrew text behind the Septuagint translation cannot be reclaimed with certainty and precision. On the other hand, Aquila's Translation was done word for word, and is a very exact, overly literal translation. The Jewish encyclopaedia states: "The main feature of Aquila's version is its excessive literalness. His chief aim was to render the Hebrew into Greek word for word, without any regard for Greek idiom. The same Greek word is regularly used for the same Hebrew, however incongruous the effect." In fact, it is so literal that in many instances it does not make much sense in Greek! This overly literal translation preserved the Hebrew Tanach much more efficiently than the Septuagint translation, and the Jewish encyclopaedia states that "one can reconstruct the original Hebrew text underlying Aquila's translation with certainty." When studying the Vat. Ebr. 100 manuscript, we see many examples where the Hebrew tradition was preserved very well through the Hebrew > Catalan > Hebrew translation process.

manuscript similar to Vat. Ebr. 100, but impossible for this manuscript to have originated from the Greek or Latin. We are planning to publish these linguistic evidences, and numerous other interesting discoveries in a separate series of articles, rather than having them all mixed up and scattered throughout the footnotes.

About the Translation

The manuscript used for this translation of Mark is from the Vatican Library, Vat. Ebr. 100.<sup>a</sup> We have accurately and literally translated it, using color photographs of the actual manuscript, which are available from the digital Vatican Library.<sup>b</sup>

The translation is focused on accuracy, rather than flowing English, as it is very easy to create contradictions with a non-literal, paraphrase-type translation.

In the actual translation:

- Words or phrases that are still in question were placed in [square brackets].
- The spellings of all Hebrew/Aramaic names/titles were standardized to their Hebrew pronunciation.

---

<sup>a</sup> http://digi.vatlib.it/view/MSS\_Vat.ebr.100/

<sup>b</sup> URL links to each online page of translated manuscript is provided throughout the translation.

- Only names and titles were capitalized (e.g. Yeshua). Pronouns like ‘you’ or ‘he’ are not capitalized (even when referring to YHWH or Yeshua) as this is sometimes based merely on the translator’s interpretation. The reader should rather use the context to determine whom the pronoun is referring to.
- Italic words were added to help the English reader understand what the Hebrew text implies by context.
- Certain words were marked in bold according to the emphasis in the Hebrew manuscript – based on special word order etc. – and are not our own emphasis or interpretation. (This is to be expanded and finalized in the next version.)
- Verse numbers were added only to make it easy to compare with a standard English translation. Verse numbers are absent in the manuscript and sentences often flow across the next verse number. On the other hand, the section breaks in the manuscript of Mark do mostly agree with the standard division into chapters.
- If a certain verse does not appear in this English translation, take note that it also does not appear in the Hebrew manuscript, and this does not necessarily represent a mistake. It is well known that Greek translators and scribes/editors of the Old Testament often added explanatory notes, interpretations and extra words into their manuscripts, and this expanded the text over time. The same proves to be true of Greek translations of the New Testament books which were originally written in Hebrew.

The current translation (version 1.1) has been reviewed a number of times, but is due to be reviewed again before printing. We are planning to later publish a transcript of all four Gospels in Hebrew, together with the English translation in book form. This is a non-profit project, and the printed edition will be sold at cost price.

Copyright – May 2020. No part of this work may be reproduced without permission. However, as long as it is not sold, nor altered in any way, this e-book may be used freely and distributed without permission.

The Van Rensburg Family

www.hebrewgospels.com

hebrewgospels@gmail.com

List of Abbreviations used in Footnotes

Alt. Alternative, alternatively

E.g. For example

I.e. That is

Lit. Literally

Ms(s). Manuscript(s)

N.T. New Testament

O.T. Old Testament

Pl. Plural

P(p). Page(s)

Prob. Probably

V(s). Verse(s)

Mark

1:1 \(47v\)<sup>a</sup> This is the good news of Yeshua<sup>b</sup> Mashiach,<sup>c</sup> the Son of Eloah.<sup>d</sup>

2 Just like it is written in the prophet Yeshayah,<sup>e</sup> saying, “Behold, I am sending<sup>f</sup> my messenger<sup>g</sup> before you, who will prepare your way

---

<sup>a</sup> Click on link to view manuscript online, folio 47v. (Take note that Hebrew and English word orders are different, thus some manuscript folio transitions do not correspond exactly to the position indicated in the English sentence.)

<sup>b</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Jesus.’ “Yeshua” is short for ‘Yehoshua,’ which means ‘Yah is Salvation,’ see Mat. 1:21.

<sup>c</sup> Or ‘Messiah’ – the Hebrew word which was translated into the Greek ‘Kristos’ but should be clearly distinguished from the Catholic symbolic ‘Christ.’ Literal meaning: ‘anointed one,’ usually referring to one anointed as king of Yisrael, or as priest or prophet. However when used as a name, it refers to the Son of YHWH, whom he anointed as the ultimate King of Yisrael, the Everlasting High Priest, and the Prophet who would speak YHWH’s words to his people, and if anyone does not obey him, YHWH himself will cut off that person from among his people. See Deu. 18:18.

<sup>d</sup> Singular of ‘Elohim,’ and usually translated as ‘God.’ In Hebrew however, the word ‘luck’ or ‘fortune’ is pronounced as “gad” and sometimes as “god” (medieval) – see e.g. Gen. 30:10-11; Josh. 11:17; Isa. 65:11. Therefore we prefer to not use ‘God.’

<sup>e</sup> The Hebrew name for Isaiah. Although the first quotation (vs. 2) is from Malachi, the second (vs. 3) is from Yeshayah.

<sup>f</sup> “Behold, I am sending” or “I am about to send”

<sup>g</sup> Hebrew: “malach” – used for both human and heavenly messengers. The English word ‘angel’ is not a translation – only a transliteration of the Greek ‘aggelos.’ Besides, the average person reading ‘angel’ would probably envisage some female figure with wings. Heavenly ‘malachim’ or messengers are distinct from the cherubim; they do not have wings and appear as men. (‘Angels’ and ‘men’ are used interchangeably – see e.g. Gen. 18. Compare Mat. 28:2-5 and John 20:12 vs. Mark 16:5 and Luke 24:4; also see Hebrews 13:2.) Ironically, the ‘angels’ depicted in many Christian books look more like the evil spirits described in Zec. 5:9.

before you.”<sup>3</sup> “A voice cries in the wilderness, which says, ‘prepare the way of Ha-Adon,<sup>a</sup> make the ways of Ha-Adon straight.’”

<sup>4</sup> Yochanan<sup>b</sup> was in the wilderness, dipping, and preaching the dipping of repentance for the atonement of iniquities.<sup>5</sup> Then all those who were of the kingdom of Yehudah<sup>c</sup> and Yerushalayim<sup>d</sup> went out unto him, and he was dipping them in the Yarden<sup>e</sup> river, while they did confession over their iniquities.<sup>6</sup> (Now Yochanan was clothed with camel skins and girded around the loins with a leather belt. And they ate<sup>f</sup> locusts and wilderness honey.)<sup>7</sup> And he preached and said, “One stronger than me will come after me, he of whom I am not worthy to loosen the lace of his sandals.<sup>8</sup> I am dipping you with water, he will dip you with Ruach Ha-Qodesh.”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>9</sup> [And it happened] in those days – that Yeshua Notsri<sup>h</sup> came from a city of Gelilah<sup>i</sup> and he was dipped in the Yarden river by Yochanan.<sup>10</sup> And immediately – when he went out of the water – he saw the heavens opened and Ruach Ha-Qodesh descended onto him like a dove.<sup>j</sup><sup>11</sup> And there came \(48r\) a voice in the heavens saying, “You are my Son, very pleasing to me, and beloved.”

---

<sup>a</sup> The Hebrew word for ‘The Master.’ ‘Adon’ or ‘Ha-Adon’ is often used for YHWH in quotations from the Tanach (Old Testament).

<sup>b</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘John’

<sup>c</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Judah’

<sup>d</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Jerusalem’

<sup>e</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Jordan’

<sup>f</sup> “they ate” is a plural verb in Hebrew, and possibly refers to Yochanan and his disciples.

<sup>g</sup> Lit. “the Set-Apart Spirit”

<sup>h</sup> The Hebrew word for ‘Nazarene’

<sup>i</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Galilee’

<sup>j</sup> Or “in the likeness of a dove”

12 And immediately Ruach Ha-Qodesh led him into the wilderness. 13 There he afflicted<sup>a</sup> himself forty days and forty nights, and Ha-Satan<sup>b</sup> tempted him. And he was staying there among the animals, and the messengers served him.

14 And after Yochanan was imprisoned, Yeshua came into Gelilah and preached the word of El,<sup>c</sup> 15 and said, “The time of the kingdom of heavens is come, perform repentance and believe the word of El.”

16 As Yeshua and others walked in Gelilah, he saw Shimon and Andrai<sup>d</sup> his brother who were casting<sup>e</sup> the nets into the sea, for they were fishers. 17 Then Yeshua said to them, “Come, and walk after me, and I will make you fishers of the men.” 18 So they immediately left the nets and went after him. 19 When they had walked a little further, he saw Ya’aqov<sup>f</sup> and Yochanan, the sons of Zavdai<sup>g</sup> in a little boat, [casting]<sup>h</sup> their net. 20 And immediately he called them, so they left their father Zavdai in the small boat and went after him, 21 and they entered into Kephars Nachum.<sup>i</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> Heb. idiom, means “to fast”

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “The Adversary” – because it is often used as a name in these gospels we have transliterated the name instead of translating it, as with all other Hebrew names.

<sup>c</sup> Usually translated as ‘God.’ In Hebrew however, the word ‘luck’ or ‘fortune’ is pronounced as “gad” and sometimes as “god” (medieval) – see e.g. Gen. 30:10-11; Josh. 11:17; Isa. 65:11. Therefore we prefer to not use ‘God.’

<sup>d</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Andrew’

<sup>e</sup> Lit. “placing”

<sup>f</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘James’

<sup>g</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Zebedee’

<sup>h</sup> Lit. “placing”

<sup>i</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Capernaum’

And immediately, on the Sabbath,<sup>a</sup> they entered into their house of gathering, and he taught them. <sup>22</sup> And all of them were astonished because of his instruction, for he taught like one who had<sup>b</sup> power, not like the wise ones of the law.<sup>c</sup> <sup>23</sup> And there was a man in the house of gathering, and he was crying out, <sup>24</sup> and saying, “What do you have to do with me, Yeshua Notsri! Did you come to destroy us? I know that you are the set-apart one of YHWH.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>25</sup> But Yeshua rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet, go out of that man!” <sup>26</sup> So the satan,<sup>e</sup> inflicting him with pain, \(48v\) went out of that man while crying out – and all of them were amazed. <sup>27</sup> And they walked unto each other saying, “What will become of this man – because of the new instruction – that he has the ability to command the demons, and they are obedient to him?” <sup>28</sup> And his fame was spread in the whole Galilah.

<sup>29</sup> And immediately, when he went out of the house of the gathering, he came to the house of Shimon and Andrai, together with Ya’aqov and with Yochanan, to eat. <sup>30</sup> Now the mother in law of Keipha<sup>f</sup> lay

---

<sup>a</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Sabbath’

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “an owner of power”

<sup>c</sup> Here the Hebrew word for “law” is not Torah. The ‘wise ones of the law’ (lawyers) taught hundreds of added man-made laws, many of which contradicted the Torah.

<sup>d</sup> The Hebrew manuscript has “Ha-Shem” which literally means ‘The Name.’ Today still, many Jews will read “Ha-Shem” when they see the Hebrew יהוה. We have replaced ‘Ha-Shem’ with transliterated consonants of ‘the Name’ itself: “YHWH.” As for pronunciation, the only grammatically possible pronunciation, from which all other abbreviations/contractions can be formed, is ‘Yah-weh.’

<sup>e</sup> Synonym of demon

<sup>f</sup> The Aramaic name for ‘Peter,’ note that ‘Cephas’ in English Bibles comes from the Greek transliteration of the Aramaic name Keipha. A number of Aramaic nouns were used in post-exilic Hebrew.

sick of a fever. And immediately he told it to him.<sup>a</sup> 31 So Yeshua came and lifted up her hand, and immediately the fever left her, and she served them.

32 And that evening, when the sun set,<sup>b</sup> they sent to him all the sick ones and satan-possessed ones, 33 and all those<sup>c</sup> of the city were gathered before the door. 34 And many suffering from diverse diseases and many satan-possessed ones came to him. He drove out the demons, for they recognized him.

35 And he rose up in the morning, and departed, and went away into the wilderness, and there he prayed. 36 Then Shimon and those who were with him went after him. 37 And when they found him, they said to him, “All the peoples<sup>d</sup> are seeking you.” 38 But he said to them, “Let us go into the cities and towns<sup>e</sup> that are around us, and let us preach there, for because of this did I come.” 39 Thus he was preaching in the houses of their gatherings, and in the whole Gelilah he drove out the demons from the men.

40 And a certain leprous man came unto him, and bowed down to him, saying, “If you want to, you are able to cleanse me.” 41 So Yeshua, when<sup>f</sup> he had compassion on him, stretched out his hand and said to him, “I \(49r\) want that you should be cleansed from the

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “immediately he told him of her”

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “was humbled”

<sup>c</sup> Or “all the people”

<sup>d</sup> The Hebrew word for people “עַם” or ‘Am’ occurs in singular and plural. When used in plural, it normally refers to groups of people, and could mean “crowds.”

<sup>e</sup> Or “districts”

<sup>f</sup> Or “because”

leprosy.”<sup>42</sup> When he was immediately cleansed,<sup>43</sup> he led<sup>a</sup> him out<sup>44</sup> and said to him, “Listen, do not tell this to any man. But go and show yourself to the chiefs of the priests, and offer<sup>b</sup> for your cleansing, that which Mosheh<sup>c</sup> commanded as a testimony in Yisrael.<sup>d</sup> <sup>45</sup> But when he departed, he began to preach and to publish the sign, until Yeshua was not able to enter into a city in secret,<sup>e</sup> but had to stay outside in the wilderness, and there the peoples<sup>f</sup> gathered together from all sides.

2:1 And after a few days he again entered into Kephar Nachum, <sup>2</sup> and when they knew that he was in the house, many people gathered together, but it could not contain them, for all the house was filled unto the door.

<sup>3</sup> And there came unto him four men, carrying a disabled man in a bed. <sup>4</sup> And when they were not able to present him before him, they went up onto the house, and destroyed it. Then they went up on top of the roof with the bed, and brought him before Yeshua. <sup>5</sup> Now when Yeshua saw their faith,<sup>g</sup> he said unto the disabled man, “Your iniquities are forgiven for you.” <sup>6</sup> And some of the wise ones of the law were there with him, and they thought in their hart, saying, <sup>7</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “brought”

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “vow” – but oftentimes means to “vow to offer” – here the original meaning “vow” has been dropped and the word simply means “to offer.”

<sup>c</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Moses’

<sup>d</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Israel’

<sup>e</sup> Lit. “hiding”

<sup>f</sup> Or “crowds”

<sup>g</sup> Lit. “faithfulness” – Hebrew faith is both believing and doing (being faithful).

“How can speak so? This is a curse,<sup>a</sup> for who is able to make atonement<sup>b</sup> for iniquities besides El?”<sup>8</sup> And immediately he recognized their thoughts – by Ruach Ha-Qodesh – and he said to them, “What are you thinking \(49v\) in your hearts?<sup>9</sup> What is an easier word,<sup>c</sup> to say to the disabled, ‘Your iniquities are forgiven’ or to say, ‘Arise, take your bed and carry it into your house – and walk’?<sup>10</sup> But on account of this, that you may know that the Son of the virgin has power to let go<sup>d</sup> the iniquities in the earth,” – he said to the disabled man –<sup>11</sup> “I am telling you, you, that you must rise, and take up you bed.”<sup>12</sup> And immediately he stood up, and took his bed, and walked – before them all – in such a way that all of them were astonished, and blessed El, saying, “From ancient times we have not seen anything like this matter.”

<sup>13</sup> Then he departed from there to go to the sea again, and all the people came, and he showed<sup>e</sup> veiled things. <sup>14</sup> As he passed by a place, he saw Lewi<sup>f</sup> at his feet, ( )<sup>g</sup> sitting by the table of exchange. And he said to him, “Follow after me.” So he stood up and followed after him.

---

<sup>a</sup> By saying that he can forgive sins, Yeshua claimed to be Elohim, and those who did not believe in him saw it as blasphemy.

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “cover” – but this is a special word that implies atonement and/or forgiveness.

<sup>c</sup> Or “matter”

<sup>d</sup> This Hebrew word is used similarly in Matt. 6:12; and 7:2, it means to “forgive,” or to “let go” what someone owes.

<sup>e</sup> Or “revealed” or “taught”

<sup>f</sup> Hebrew name for ‘Levi’

<sup>g</sup> Manuscript inserts gloss “he is Matithyahu” (Matithyahu is the Hebrew name for ‘Matthew’).

15 And it happened while they were eating in the house, that many lustful ones and sinners were eating with Yeshua and his talmidim<sup>a</sup> – there were also many people there who walked after him. 16 But when the scribes<sup>b</sup> and the Perushim<sup>c</sup> saw that Yeshua was eating with the lustful ones and with the sinners, they said to his talmidim, “Why with the lustful ones and the sinners – does your Rabbi eat and drink?” 17 When Yeshua heard this he said, “The healthy ones do not need a healer, only they who have illness. Certainly, I did not come to call the righteous ones, but the sinners.”

18 (Now there were talmidim of Yochanan there, and of the Perushim, who were afflicting themselves.)<sup>d</sup> And they said to Yeshua, “Why are the talmidim of \(50r\) Yochanan and of the Perushim afflicting themselves, but your talmidim are not afflicting themselves?” 19 So Yeshua said to them, “Those who are close to the marriage – how [are they] able to fast like this while the bridegroom is with them? 20 However the time is drawing near that the [bridegroom will be torn away] from you, and at that time they will fast – many days. 21 No man places a new cloth on his old garment, for in another way, the new cloth would break the old, and a larger tear would be made. 22 And there is no man placing new wine in old skins. For the old skins would break open and the wine be spilled. However, new wine should be placed<sup>e</sup> in new skins.”

---

<sup>a</sup> Usually translated as ‘disciples’ – the Hebrew ‘talmid’ is a student who learns from his teacher and follows his example. “Talmidim” is the masculine plural form.

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “letter makers” – a synonym of ‘scribes’

<sup>c</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Pharisees’

<sup>d</sup> Heb. idiom, means “to fast”

<sup>e</sup> Lit. “it is to place new wine” or “one should place new wine”

23 And it happened another time, that he passed by sowed lands<sup>a</sup> on the Shabbath. And his talmidim began to break off some of the pieces.<sup>b</sup> 24 Then the Perushim said to him, “Your talmidim are doing on the Shabbath that which is not proper to do.” 25 But Yeshua said to them, “Did you never read what Dawid<sup>c</sup> did, he and his soldiers, when they became hungry? 26 That he entered into the Sanctuary under Evyathar,<sup>d</sup> the chief of the priests, and ate the set-apart loaves, which no man is worthy to eat, except the priests? He ate and gave to his soldiers.” 27 Then he said, “The Shabbath was made for the sake of man, not the man on account of the Shabbath. 28 And because of this the Son of Eloah is Adon of everything, whatever is in the world – and of the Shabbath.”

3:1 (50v) Again, another time Yeshua entered into the house of assembly, and there was a man there with the hand dried out. 2 And the Perushim espied him – to see whether he would cleanse<sup>e</sup> him on the Shabbath, in order that they could slander him. 3 But Yeshua said to the man with the withered hand, “Stand up, and stand in the midst.” 4 Then Yeshua said to them, “Should a man do good on the Feast day, or evil? Save, or let a man perish?” And behold, they were quiet. 5 So Yeshua became angry because of their works while they were looking on. And he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand!” and it was healed. 6 And immediately the Perushim went out and held a council with those of Herod – against Yeshua – that they could put him to death.

---

<sup>a</sup> Lit. “places of seeds”

<sup>b</sup> Matthew clarifies that they plucked the ‘ears of grain’

<sup>c</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘David’

<sup>d</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Abiathar’

<sup>e</sup> Or “heal”

7 But Yeshua went to the sea with the talmidim, and many people following with him from Gelilah 8 to Yerushalayim – and from Yehudah, and from Edom, and from the other side of the Yarden river, and from Surya<sup>a</sup> and from Sedom<sup>b</sup> – for they heard people telling the wonders which he was doing, so they came unto him. 9 And he went up into a small boat when the people came after him.

10 The people who were sick – whom he was healing – wanted to touch him, 11 and the satan-possessed ones who saw him bowed down, crying out and saying, “You are the Son of Eloah.” 12 But Yeshua rebuked them that they should not reveal him.

13 Now Yeshua went up into a mountain, and chose out of them those who were more upright in his eyes, 14 until so much that they were twelve, in order that they should go preach in the world. 15 And he gave them power to heal sick ones and satan-possessed ones. \(51r\) 16 And there he named<sup>c</sup> Shimon Keipha. 17 And Elazar<sup>d</sup> the son of Zavdai, and Yochanan his brother, and there he called them, “[to be finalized],” which is to say, “A son of the most high Eloah.” 18 And Andrai and Philip and Talmai<sup>e</sup> and Matithyahu, and Toma,<sup>f</sup> and

---

<sup>a</sup> Syria

<sup>b</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Sodom’

<sup>c</sup> Lit. “placed” – also used with the meaning “named” in the Tanach. See e.g. Dan. 1:7-8

<sup>d</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Lazarus,’ the same person as ‘Ya’aqov’ (James)

<sup>e</sup> Short name of ‘Bar-Talmi,’ the Hebrew name for ‘Bartholomew’

<sup>f</sup> The Aramaic name for ‘Tomas’

Ya'aqov Chaphayi,<sup>a</sup> and Tadaï,<sup>b</sup> and Shimon Qanai,<sup>c</sup> 19 and Yehudah<sup>d</sup> Ish-Qerioth,<sup>e</sup> who betrayed him.

And afterwards he came unto the house, 20 and many people gathered together there, so that they were not able to eat their bread. 21 And when those who did not see him went outside, they said in their heart, “He is honoured.”

22 But the wise ones of the law who came from Yerushalayim said that, “He is satan-possessed, and with the power of Ba'al-Zevuv<sup>f</sup> the prince of the satans he heals the satan-possessed ones.” 23 So Yeshua called them and told them parables, “How is one satan able to drive out another satan? 24 And if any kingdom is without the wisdom, is that kingdom able to stand? 25 In a household which has division of the heart among them, no one is able to endure.<sup>g</sup> 26 And if Ha-Satan rises up against himself, he is divided, and he is not able to stand, but there will come an end to him. 27 No man is able to enter into the house of the strong and to steal the vessels if he does not first bind him, and then he can rob the house. 28 Truly I am saying to you that all the iniquities will be atoned,<sup>h</sup> 29 besides iniquity against Ruach Ha-Qodesh. This is he who does not have hope. This iniquity will not

---

<sup>a</sup> Hebrew word for ‘the Alphite,’ meaning “the son of Chalphai”

<sup>b</sup> Or ‘Thaddeus’

<sup>c</sup> The Hebrew word for ‘Zealous’

<sup>d</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Judas’

<sup>e</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Iscariot,’ meaning ‘the Man from Qerioth’

<sup>f</sup> Lit. “Lord of Flies”

<sup>g</sup> Lit. “keep himself standing”

<sup>h</sup> Lit. “covered”

be atoned for ever. But it<sup>a</sup> is worthy of eternal Nephashith<sup>b</sup> death, <sup>30</sup> for they said, ‘He is satan possessed.’”

<sup>31</sup> And his mother came, \(51v\) and his relatives – and stood outside<sup>c</sup> and wanted him. <sup>32</sup> Now many people were sitting around him. Then they said to him, “Behold, your mother and your relatives are standing outside,<sup>d</sup> and they are seeking you.” <sup>33</sup> But he answered, “Who is my mother? And who are my brothers?” <sup>34</sup> And he looked at those who were around him and said, “These are my mother and brothers, <sup>35</sup> and all those who do the will of YHWH, they are my brothers and sisters.”

4:1 And another time Yeshua began to teach by the sea shore, and a multitude of people gathered together, and therefore he had to go up into the little boat. So he sat in the sea, and the whole troop sat by the shore of the sea. <sup>2</sup> And he preached to them, and he taught them with many parables.

<sup>3</sup> And he said to them, “One man went out to sow his seed, <sup>4</sup> and while he was sowing, some of the seeds fell close to the road, and the birds came and ate them. <sup>5</sup> And others fell in places of stones, where there was not much soil in it. And immediately it came up, <sup>6</sup> but dried up when the sun struck it, because it did not have a root. <sup>7</sup> And another<sup>e</sup> fell between the thorn bushes, and the thorn bushes grew up together, and strangled it. And it did not bear fruit – springing up and

---

<sup>a</sup> Refers back to “This iniquity”

<sup>b</sup> An adjective from ‘nephesh.’ Nephesh literally means ‘breath,’ ‘life,’ or ‘soul,’ etc. – take note, not the Greek understanding of ‘soul’.

<sup>c</sup> Lit. “in the street”

<sup>d</sup> Lit. “in the street”

<sup>e</sup> Hebrew often uses singular (collective use) to speak of a group of objects.

growing. <sup>8</sup> And another fell in the good ground, and bare fruit, the one thirty, and the one sixty, and the one a hundred.” <sup>9</sup> Then Yeshua said, “Whosoever has ears, let him obey.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>10</sup> And when he was at one side,<sup>b</sup> the talmidim asked him regarding the proverb, <sup>11</sup> and he said to them: “To you it is given \(52r\) to understand the confidential counsels of the heavenly kingdom, but not to them – except by these likenesses, <sup>12</sup> ‘That they may see but not perceive, and they may hear but not understand’ – [to be finalized]”

<sup>13</sup> Then he said to them, “Do you not understand this likeness? <sup>14</sup> He who sows is he who preaches the word. <sup>15</sup> That which fell by the road are those who hear the words of El, but Ha-Satan immediately comes and removes it from their heart. ‘[And that which fell between the stones is he who hears the word of YHWH and receives it with joy – however, he does not have a root and dries up quickly, for through indignant speech they are immediately confused.] <sup>18</sup> And that which fell in the ground of thornbushes, they are those who hear the preaching, <sup>19</sup> but the shortcomings of the world, and the loss of the worldly riches strangle them, and they are left without fruit. <sup>20</sup> But that which fell on the good ground, is the genealogy of those who hear, and put into action, and bear good fruit – until there comes forth

---

<sup>a</sup> This Hebrew word שמע (Shama) has a dual meaning; it means to hear AND act accordingly (obey).

<sup>b</sup> Meaning ‘apart’ (form the crowd)

<sup>c</sup> These 2 verses are missing in this ms. of Mark and are supplied from Matthew.

from one kernel, thirty, and from another, sixty and from another a hundred. Whosoever has ears to hear, let him obey!”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>21</sup> He also said to them, “There is no man who places a burning lamp under the barrel, neither under the bed, but a man places it on the Menorah.<sup>b</sup> <sup>22</sup> Nothing is hidden and concealed that will not become known. <sup>23</sup> Whosoever has ears to hear, let him obey!”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>24</sup> “And I say to you, take notice what you hear! For with that measure by which you measure – with that you will receive, with that amount.<sup>d</sup> <sup>25</sup> And he who has, let him give, but he who does [not]<sup>e</sup> have, that thing itself which he has, they will rob from him.”

<sup>26</sup> And moreover he said to them, “Thus<sup>f</sup> is the heavenly kingdom, like a man who was sowing good seed \(S2v\) in the ground. <sup>27</sup> Then he slept day and night, and he rested while the seed grew up and bore seed, but he does not know how. <sup>28</sup> And more above<sup>g</sup> this, the earth first brings up<sup>h</sup> the plants, and afterwards the ears, and afterwards the wheat fills the ear. <sup>29</sup> And when the fruit is complete, immediately they put in the sickle, for it is the time of the harvest.

<sup>30</sup> Now I say to you, to what could I liken the kingdom of YHWH, to what pattern can I liken it? <sup>31</sup> It is like a grain of mustard: when it is

---

<sup>a</sup> This Hebrew word שמע (Shama) has a dual meaning; it means to hear AND act accordingly (obey).

<sup>b</sup> The Hebrew word for “lampstand”

<sup>c</sup> This Hebrew word שמע (Shama) has a dual meaning; it means to hear AND act accordingly (obey).

<sup>d</sup> Lit. “greatness”

<sup>e</sup> Compare Matt. 13:12

<sup>f</sup> Or “so”

<sup>g</sup> Or ‘even more than this’

<sup>h</sup> Or “grows”

sown in the earth it is smaller<sup>a</sup> than all the vegetables which are in the earth. <sup>32</sup> But when it is sown, it grows up, and is made<sup>b</sup> bigger than the rest of the plants, and makes so many seeds and branches, that the birds of the heavens dwell in the shade of its branch.”

<sup>33</sup> He told them many likenesses like these, on account of this – that they may understand, <sup>34</sup> and he did not speak to them without likenesses. And because of this, he explained it to them at one side.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>35</sup> And on that day when it became evening, he said to them, “Let us pass on further.” <sup>36</sup> So they let the troops<sup>d</sup> go, and he went up into a small boat. And other boats went into the sea with him. <sup>37</sup> And then a great and mighty wind arose, and waves, until the boat began to fill up. <sup>38</sup> But Yeshua was asleep in the stern on a pillow. So they woke him up and said, “Rabbi, won’t you turn to us while<sup>e</sup> you see that we are being destroyed?” <sup>39</sup> Then Yeshua arose and commanded the wind and the sea that they should be quiet, and immediately there was a great quiet. <sup>40</sup> Then he said to them, “Why did you fear, do you still not have faith?<sup>f</sup> <sup>41</sup> And then they feared him with might,<sup>g</sup> saying one \(53r\) to another, “Whom do we think that this is, that the wind and the sea obey him?”

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “less”

<sup>b</sup> Or “becomes”

<sup>c</sup> Meaning ‘apart’ (from the crowd)

<sup>d</sup> Or “crowds”

<sup>e</sup> Or “for”

<sup>f</sup> Lit. “faithfulness” – Hebrew faith is both believing and doing (being faithful).

<sup>g</sup> Meaning ‘they feared him exceedingly’

5:1 And they came across the sea,<sup>a</sup> toward [Ginneisareth].<sup>b</sup> 2 And immediately, when he went out of the boat, one satan-possessed man came out unto him in the way, 3 who lay<sup>c</sup> in the graves. And he was so evil that they were not able to seize him with chains, 4 neither with iron fetters, for he continually broke them. And they were not able to calm him.<sup>d</sup> 5 But by day and by night he was standing in the graves and in the mountains, shouting, and smiting himself with stones. 6 But when he saw Yeshua afar off, he came by running and worshiped him, 7 saying with a high voice, “What do you, Yeshua, have to do with me, o Son of the Most High El!? I adjure you by the living El that you do not inflict me with pain.” 8 And Yeshua said to him, “Go out, unclean spirit.” 9 And he asked him, “What is your name?” So he answered, “My name is A Number, for they are many.” 10 And he beseeched him exceedingly that he would not drive him out of that kingdom. 11 Now around from there, many swine were grazing. 12 The spirits tested him, saying, “[Place] us in the swine, so that we may enter into them.” 13 So Yeshua consented to them. Immediately the satans went out and entered into the swine, and they threw themselves into the sea – and they drowned, up to two thousand.

14 And those who were keeping them, fled and reported it \(53v\) in the city. Then all of them went out to see what had happened. 15 And when they had come to Yeshua, and had seen them who were formerly satan-possessed ones – that they were in good – they were all afraid. 16 And they recounted what they saw, and what the work

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “to the other side of the sea”

<sup>b</sup> Gennesaret

<sup>c</sup> Or “slept”

<sup>d</sup> Or “bring him to rest”

was regarding him who was satan possessed, and about the swine. <sup>17</sup> Then they entreated him that he would go away from them.<sup>a</sup> <sup>18</sup> And when Yeshua entered into the boat, he who formerly was satan possessed began to implore him that he could go with him. <sup>19</sup> But Yeshua was not pleased,<sup>b</sup> but said to him, go away to your house, and to those who are yours, and recount the steadfast love which YHWH performed to you. <sup>20</sup> So he went, preaching with acceptance<sup>c</sup> the steadfast love that YHWH performed to him. And all of them were astonished.

<sup>21</sup> And when Yeshua passed over to the other side of the sea in a boat, many people assembled with him at the shore of the sea. <sup>22</sup> And there came to him a great one from the house of the assembly, with the name of Ya'ir.<sup>d</sup> And when he saw him he fell<sup>e</sup> to his knees at his feet, <sup>23</sup> entreating and saying, “My daughter is close to death – come and lay your hands upon her, and she will be healed.” <sup>24</sup> So Yeshua went with him, and with many people who went after him. <sup>25</sup> And there was a woman who had a dripping of blood, the<sup>f</sup> past twelve years, <sup>26</sup> and they took from her all that she had by medicines, without her finding any profit at all. <sup>27</sup> And when she heard that Yeshua Mashiach was coming among the people, she entered and touched the rear parts of his garments, <sup>28</sup> for she was saying in her inside, “If I am able to touch his garment, I \(54r\) myself will be healed.” <sup>29</sup> And

---

<sup>a</sup> Lit. “that he would separate himself from in front of them.”

<sup>b</sup> Or “did not want it”

<sup>c</sup> Or perhaps ‘capacity’

<sup>d</sup> Hebrew name for ‘Jairus’

<sup>e</sup> Lit. “knelt”

<sup>f</sup> Or “these”

immediately the flowing of blood was stopped, and she perceived that she was healed.

30 And Yeshua, who knew in himself the truth which went out of him, turned to the side of the people and said, “Who touched my garment?” 31 Then the talmidim said to him, “You see that your people press you, and you say, ‘Who touched me?’” 32 And he looked if he was able to see her who did this. 33 Then the woman trembled, and feared, for she knew well the wonder which was done in her. So she knelt before him, and told him all the truth. 34 And he explained,<sup>a</sup> and said to her, “My daughter, your faith<sup>b</sup> saved you, go in shalom and be healed.”

35 And while he spoke, they came unto the ruler of the house of assembly, and said to him, “Your daughter died. Why would you still trouble yourself today?” 36 And the teacher Yeshua who heard this, said, “Do not fear, only have good faith<sup>c</sup> in YHWH.” So he believed. 37 And he did not take<sup>d</sup> any man with him, except Keipha and Ya’aqov. 38 And they came into the house of the ruler of the house of assembly, and they saw there much weeping and outcrying.<sup>e</sup>

39 As Yeshua entered into the house, he said, “Why are you perplexed and weeping over the young girl? She is not dead, but she is sleeping.” 40 And all of them mocked at him. But Yeshua drove them all out, beside the father and the mother and the talmidim who were with him. And they entered into the place where the young girl was

---

<sup>a</sup> Or perhaps ‘paid attention’

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “faithfulness” – Hebrew faith is both believing and doing (being faithful).

<sup>c</sup> Lit. “faithfulness” – Hebrew faith is both believing and doing (being faithful).

<sup>d</sup> Lit. “cause/allow to walk”

<sup>e</sup> Or “Complaining”

lying, <sup>41</sup> and he took her by the hand and said unto her, “[Talyetha qumi.]” Which wants to say, “Virgin, I say to you that you must stand up.” <sup>42</sup> And immediately the young girl turned \(54v\) alive and she walked. (She was of the age<sup>a</sup> of 12 years.) And all of them were frightened because of the greatness of the wonder. <sup>43</sup> And he commanded them that they should not tell it to anyone. And afterwards he commanded that they should give her something to eat.

6:1 And Yeshua departed from there and went into his own land,<sup>b</sup> and his talmidim followed after him. <sup>2</sup> And on a certain Shabbath he began to teach in the house of assembly, and many who listened were amazed at his instruction. And they said, “From where does he have the wisdom that is given to him? And from where does he have the power that comes out of his hands? <sup>3</sup> Is he not the son of a smith, and Miryam – and his relatives Ya’aqov and Yoseph and Yehudah and Shimon? And all these are with us.” And they were offended in him. <sup>4</sup> So Yeshua said to them, “No prophet is without honour, except in his land, and among his acquaintances, and in his house.” <sup>5</sup> And he did not want to do any wonder there – except a few little sick ones that he healed by laying hands upon them – <sup>6</sup> for he was amazed at the smallness of their faith.<sup>c</sup>

And he went around the small towns, preaching and teaching. <sup>7</sup> Then he called the 12 talmidim and sent them, two by two, and he gave them power to heal all sick ones and satan-possessed ones. <sup>8</sup> And he commanded them that they should not carry a sack or bread or a

---

<sup>a</sup> Lit. “time”

<sup>b</sup> “his own land” is lit. “the place of his presence”

<sup>c</sup> Lit. “faithfulness” – Hebrew faith is both believing and doing (being faithful).

stone<sup>a</sup> or a girdle.<sup>b</sup> <sup>9</sup> But that they should take one staff in the hand, and two shoes of fresh leather on the foot. And that they should not wear two [garments].

<sup>10</sup> (55r) And he said to them, “In whatever place you come, stay there until you depart. <sup>11</sup> And when they do not want to receive you, nor listen – go out from there and remove your feet’s dust as a testimony against them.” <sup>12</sup> So they went and preached that they should perform repentance. <sup>13</sup> And they healed the satan-possessed ones, and cleansed the sick ones by anointing them with blessed oil.

<sup>14</sup> And when Herod heard the publicizing<sup>c</sup> of the report of Yeshua, he said that, “He is Yochanan Dipper, and he turned alive from death – and because of this he does wonders.” <sup>15</sup> And the others said that he is Eliyahu,<sup>d</sup> and others said that he is a prophet, of one of the prophets. <sup>16</sup> So when Herod heard this he said, “This is Yochanan whose head I cut off, and he returned from death to life.”

<sup>17</sup> For this Herod had seized Yochanan, and placed him in the prison house because of Herodias, the wife of Philip his brother – she which he took. <sup>18</sup> And Yochanan said to Herod, “It is not fit for you to take the wife of your brother.” <sup>19</sup> Thus Herodias took him in loathing<sup>e</sup> and lay in wait of him, that she would be able to put him to death. But she was not able, <sup>20</sup> because Herod detained Yochanan, and regarded him to be set-apart and righteous – so he protected him, and did many things because of him, and listened to him with pleasure.

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “weight” – see e.g. Lev.19:36, Pro 11:1 where ‘stone’ means ‘weight’

<sup>b</sup> Or acc. to some sources: ‘a traveling outfit’

<sup>c</sup> Or “announcement”

<sup>d</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Elijah’

<sup>e</sup> Or “disapprovement”

<sup>21</sup> But when the intermediate<sup>a</sup> days drew near for Herod, he made his birthday feast, and he invited all the officers<sup>b</sup> and great rulers of Galilah. <sup>22</sup> Then the daughter of Herod came dancing before all the guests, and it was very pleasing \(55v\) to Herod and to all those who were eating. So Herod the king said unto the young girl, “Ask what you desire, and I will give it to you.” <sup>23</sup> And he made an oath that he would give to her everything whatever she would ask, up to half his kingdom. <sup>24</sup> And when she went out from there, she said to her mother, “What should I ask?” So she said to her, “You must ask the head of Yochanan Dipper.” <sup>25</sup> Then she immediately came unto the king and asked him in nuisance,<sup>c</sup> saying, “I desire that you give me the head of Yochanan Dipper in one of the flat vessels of wood.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the king was grieved because of the oath that he made. But because of the guests he did not want to grieve her,<sup>d</sup> <sup>27</sup> so he sent the head cutter and commanded him that he should bring him his head in one of the flat vessels of wood, <sup>28</sup> and he gave it to the young girl. Then the young girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup> And when his talmidim came to know this, they came and took his body.

<sup>30</sup> Then the talmidim came to Yeshua and recounted to him everything that they did and learned.<sup>e</sup> <sup>31</sup> So Yeshua said, “Come, let

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “average”

<sup>b</sup> Or “the chiefs of thousands”

<sup>c</sup> Or “causing inconvenience”

<sup>d</sup> Or “make it inconvenient for her”

<sup>e</sup> This word can also mean “taught,” but compare with Mat. 14:12-13. It seems that these might have been Yochanan’s talmidim who came and told Yeshua about his execution, and how they had buried his body. Otherwise we must conclude that Yeshua’s talmidim and Yochanan’s talmidim came to Yeshua at the same time, as us go into the wilderness and rest a little.” (For there were many people coming and returning, and he did not have time to eat.) <sup>32</sup> So they went up into the small boat and cast<sup>a</sup> themselves into a desolate place. <sup>33</sup> But many people who saw them, recognized him and followed after him [toward that land] by foot. And they came unto him from all the cities.

<sup>34</sup> And when Yeshua came to the land and saw the people, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep with no shepherd – so he began to teach them many and good things. <sup>35</sup> But when most of the day had passed by, his talmidim drew near to him, \(56r\) and said to him, “This is a very desolate place, and much time has passed. <sup>36</sup> Let the people go into the small hills around from here,<sup>b</sup> and buy food to eat.” <sup>37</sup> But Yeshua answered and said to them, “You, you must give them to eat – go thus to buy two hundred loaves of bread and give to them to eat!”<sup>c</sup> <sup>38</sup> Then Yeshua said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go look at it.”<sup>d</sup> And when they had looked at it, they said, “We have five breads, and two fishes.” <sup>39</sup> So Yeshua commanded them that they should make the people and the troops sit upon the grass. ( )<sup>e</sup> <sup>40</sup> And they sat – fifties by fifties and hundreds by hundreds. <sup>41</sup> Then Yeshua took the five breads and the two fishes, and did a prayer of thanksgiving and praise, and he broke them and

---

Matthew makes it clear that when Yeshua heard what had happened to Yochanan, he went to the wilderness.

<sup>a</sup> Or “placed”

<sup>b</sup> Or “around this place”

<sup>c</sup> Refer to Jn. 6:7 where one of the talmidim replied that “Two hundred coins of bread will not be enough...”

<sup>d</sup> Or “go find out”

<sup>e</sup> Ms. inserts gloss “called Phei”

gave them to his talmidim, who set them before them. And so he divided the two fishes. <sup>42</sup> And all of them ate and were satisfied. <sup>43</sup> And they [divided] twelve baskets from what was left over – from that which they<sup>a</sup> left over, even from the breads and the fishes. <sup>44</sup> And those who ate [were] five thousand men.

<sup>45</sup> And immediately he commanded his talmidim that they should enter into the small boat, and that they should go over the waters [toward Beith-Tsaidah],<sup>b</sup> while he would be sending the people away. <sup>46</sup> And as the talmidim went up into the boat, he prayed alone in the mountain.

<sup>47</sup> And when it became evening, the small boat was in the sea, and Yeshua entered<sup>c</sup> alone. <sup>48</sup> And Yeshua saw them troubling themselves with rowing, for the wind was against them. Then he came unto them around the middle of the night, walking upon the sea. <sup>49</sup> They regarded him to be some evil spirit, so all of them cried out <sup>50</sup> and were \(56v\) perplexed. But Yeshua immediately called and said, “Stand in confidence, for I am he! Do not fear.” <sup>51</sup> And then he went up into the boat – with them, and the wind stood still. And they stood greatly amazed, <sup>52</sup> for they did not yet recognize the wonder of the five breads, for their heart was dark. <sup>53</sup> And when they had passed on further, they came into the land [Ginneisareth].<sup>d</sup>

<sup>54</sup> When he went out of the boat, they immediately recognized Yeshua, <sup>55</sup> and they hastened through all the land<sup>e</sup> to bring the sick

---

<sup>a</sup> Referring to the people

<sup>b</sup> Hebrew name for ‘Bethsaida’

<sup>c</sup> Yeshua “entered” into the sea

<sup>d</sup> Gennesaret

<sup>e</sup> Or “all the people of the land hastened”

ones on beds – when they heard that he was there. <sup>56</sup> In whatever city or town he entered into, they passed by the ways and entreated his face that they might only touch the border of his garment, for all those who touched were healed.

7:1 And then there came to Yeshua, some of the Perushim and the wise ones of the old law – who came [from] Yerushalayim. <sup>2</sup> And when they saw some of his talmidim eating without ritually<sup>a</sup> washing hands, they despised them. <sup>3</sup> (For the Yehudim do not eat unless they always wash the hands ritually, according to the decree of the ancient ones. <sup>4</sup> Also there are many other statutes that they commanded them to keep. That is, to ritually wash their lids<sup>b</sup> and silver drinking vessels.) <sup>5</sup> And because of this, they asked Yeshua, saying, “Why are your talmidim not keeping the decrees of the ancient fathers, but eat bread with ritually unwashed hands all the day!?”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>6</sup> \(57r\) So Yeshua answered, saying to them, “Well did Yeshayah prophesy of you deceivers, saying, ‘This people honor me by word,<sup>d</sup> but their heart is far from me. <sup>7</sup> In vain do they honor me, teaching the instruction and commandments of men.’” <sup>8</sup> (So they forsake the commandments of El, while holding onto whatever was delivered of men, and came to them concerning cups and their silver drinking vessels, and likewise many other things.)

---

<sup>a</sup> The Hebrew word used here is נטל (natal) which literally means to ‘lift up,’ and does not refer to washing hands for hygienic reasons. This word ‘natal’ is used to describe the ritual hand washing of the Pharisees, by ‘lifting up’ a special container with the one hand, and pouring it over the other...

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “coverings”

<sup>c</sup> A Hebrew idiom meaning “all the time” or “continually”

<sup>d</sup> Or “speaking”

9 And like these words he said to them, “You are breaking the commandments of YHWH in order to keep your own institutions – 10 for Mosheh said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and ‘Whoso curses his father or his mother must certainly die.’ 11 But you say that anything of them<sup>a</sup> which a man vows<sup>b</sup> – because he made a vow,<sup>c</sup> his father and mother should profit<sup>d</sup> him – 12 and afterwards you do not allow him to repay the father and mother.<sup>e</sup> 13 Thus you are breaking the commandments of YHWH on account of your institutions which you obtained, and many other evils you do.”

14 Then he called the people and said to them, “Listen to me and pay attention to me! 15 Anything that enters into the man from outside is not able to defile him, but that which comes out of the heart of man defiles him. 16 Whosoever has ears to hear, let him obey!”<sup>f</sup>

17 And when Yeshua entered into the house, the talmidim asked him, “What does that likeness want to say?”<sup>g</sup> 18 So he said to them, “Thus, are you so very simpleminded that you do not understand? Do you not understand that nothing which enters into the body of the man is able to defile it? 19 For it does not enter the body, but only into the belly, and it sends it out \(57v\) by a natural cleaner.” 20 And he said to <sup>a</sup> “anything” of the father and mother....

---

<sup>b</sup> “vows” in this context means to vow to give it to the Temple.

<sup>c</sup> Or “because of the vow”

<sup>d</sup> Or “benefit”

<sup>e</sup> The Pharisees allowed people to make vows concerning their parent’s possessions. And so, instead of honoring and obeying their parents, they were taking away their possessions according to their own made-up vows, (with the excuse that they were giving it to the Temple).

<sup>f</sup> This Hebrew word שמע (Shama) has a dual meaning; it means to hear AND act accordingly (obey).

<sup>g</sup> Or “What does that likeness mean?”

them, “The evil things which come forth<sup>a</sup> are from the heart, from inside: 21 evil thoughts and adulteries, and murders, 22 thefts, stinginess, covetousness, pride, foolishness. 23 All these evil things come forth<sup>b</sup> from the heart, and these defile the man.”

24 Then Yeshua arose and went away to the regions beyond Tsor<sup>c</sup> and Tsidon.<sup>d</sup> And he entered into an house, but he did not want that any man should know it. However, he was not able to stay concealed, 25 for a certain woman who had a satan-possessed daughter, came unto him and knelt down at his feet. 26 Now she was [a gentile] of a family of Syria. And she entreated him that he would drive out the satan from her daughter. 27 But Yeshua said, “A man is first responsible to support his sons,<sup>e</sup> for it is no good thing to take the bread from the sons, in order to give it to the dogs.” 28 So she answered, “Truth Adon, however the puppies eat the pieces of bread that fall under the table of the masters.” 29 Then Yeshua said unto her, “Because of this word your daughter will be healed – behold, the satan has gone out of her.”

31 And then he departed from the regions of Tsor, passing by Tsidon, and came by the sea of Gelilah, to meet<sup>f</sup> [Decapolis]. 32 Then they brought to him a man, deaf and dumb, entreating him in prayer that he would lay his hand on him. 33 So Yeshua took him to one side, outside the dwelling place, and placed his fingers in the ear, and

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “move”

<sup>b</sup> Or “move”

<sup>c</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Tyre’

<sup>d</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Sidon’

<sup>e</sup> In Hebrew ‘sons’ include daughters

<sup>f</sup> Or “toward”

spitting, he touched his tongue. <sup>34</sup> And looking to the heavens he sighed and said, “Aphtach,” meaning, “Open!” <sup>35</sup> And immediately his ears were opened, \(58r\) and the confusion<sup>a</sup> of his tongue was loosened, and he spoke with ease. <sup>36</sup> Then Yeshua commanded him that he should not tell it to any man. But when he had commanded, he still made it known.<sup>b</sup> <sup>37</sup> And they were amazed, saying, “Whatever Yeshua does, he does well – for he makes the dumb ones speak and the deaf ones hear.”

8:<sub>1</sub> And in those other times a great troop of people were gathered with Yeshua, and they did not have anything to eat. So he called his talmidim and said to them, <sub>2</sub> “I have compassions on the people, for they have been following after me these three days; but they do not have anything to eat, <sub>3</sub> and if I send them to their homes they will faint in the way.” (For some of them came from far.)

<sub>4</sub> So the talmidim answered, “From what food will these people be able to be satisfied in the wilderness?” <sub>5</sub> But Yeshua asked them, “How many loaves of bread do you have?” And they answered, “Seven.” <sub>6</sub> Then he commanded the people that they should sit on the ground. And he took the seven breads, did a prayer of thanksgiving, and broke them and gave them to the talmidim and said to them, “Set them before the people.” <sub>7</sub> They also had a few fishes – [he] blessed them and commanded that they should set them before them.

<sub>8</sub> Then they – and all the people – ate and were satisfied. Afterwards they took up of what remained, seven full baskets. <sub>9</sub> And those who ate were around four thousand men, and he let them go. <sub>10</sub> And immediately he went up into the boat with his talmidim, and came toward \(58v\) Kephar Nachum and Dalmanutha.

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “disorder”

<sup>b</sup> Or “he made it known even more”

11 Then the Perushim went out and argued with them, and tempted him and asked him a sign from the heavens. 12 But Yeshua said to them, “Truth I say to you that you will not see the sign which will appear.” 13 So he left them and went up into the boat, and passed over that sea. 14 But the talmidim forgot to take bread, and had nothing except one bread. 15 Then he warned them, saying, “See, beware of the leaven of the Perushim and Herod!” 16 And as they were considering it, they said to each other, “He is saying this because we do not have bread.” 17 But Yeshua, when he perceived their thoughts, said to them, “Do you still not recognize, and not understand? Is your heart still blind? 18 Do you have eyes, but you do not see, and have ears, but you do not hear? Do you not have a memory? 19 When I divided five breads to the five thousand men – and how many baskets remained of what was left over?” And they said, “Twelve.” 20 “And of the seven breads and four thousand men – and how many baskets remained?” And they said, “Seven.” 21 So he said to them, “If so, do you not understand?”

22 Then they came to Beith-Tsaidah,<sup>a</sup> and they brought to him a blind man, and entreated him that he should touch him. 23 So Yeshua took him by the hand, and led him to one side, away from the road, and spat him in his face. Then he laid his hands on him and asked him if he saw anything. 24 So he looked at him<sup>b</sup> and said, “I see the people walking upright like trees!” 25 Then he yet again laid his hands on his eyes, and he began to see with brightness. <sup>26</sup> And Yeshua \(59r\) sent him to his house, saying to him, “Do not tell it to any man of your neighbours.”

---

<sup>a</sup> Hebrew name for ‘Bethsaida’

<sup>b</sup> Or “it”

<sup>27</sup> And still, Yeshua asked the talmidim, “What are the people saying about me? Who am I?” <sup>28</sup> So they answered, “They say that you are Yochanan Dipper, and others say, Eliyahu, and others say, a prophet.” <sup>29</sup> Then he said to them, “And you, what do you say about me? Who am I?” Then Keipha answered, “You are Mashiach.” <sup>30</sup> Therefore he commanded that they should not publicize it, <sup>31</sup> saying and showing and teaching that it was obligated<sup>a</sup> for him to bear pain,<sup>b</sup> and to be driven<sup>c</sup> to death by the chiefs of the priests and the wise ones of the law, but that he would stand up alive after three days. <sup>32</sup> And he spoke this to them in openness. Then Keipha began to rebuke him, <sup>33</sup> but Yeshua turned about before the talmidim and rebuked Keipha, saying, “Depart from me, you who are against me, for you do not have the understanding of Elohim,<sup>d</sup> but of the flesh.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>34</sup> And he called the people and his talmidim, and said to them, “He who wants to follow after me must deny himself, and take<sup>f</sup> warp and woof with him, and follow after me. <sup>35</sup> And whosoever wants to save his life,<sup>g</sup> he will lose it. But he who loses it because of me, and

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “necessary”

<sup>b</sup> Or “trouble” or “shame”

<sup>c</sup> Or “oppressed”

<sup>d</sup> Usually translated as ‘God.’ In Hebrew however, the word ‘luck’ or ‘fortune’ is pronounced as “gad” and sometimes as “god” (medieval) – see e.g. Gen. 30:10-11; Josh. 11:17; Isa. 65:11. Therefore we prefer to not use ‘God.’

<sup>e</sup> Lit. “you do not have Elohi (Godly) understanding, but fleshly”

<sup>f</sup> Or “bring”

<sup>g</sup> Heb. “Neshamah,” synonym of ‘Nephesh’

because of the good news, he will save it. <sup>36</sup> And what will it profit a man, even if he will have all the world for himself,<sup>a</sup> but he loses his nephesh?<sup>b</sup>

<sup>38</sup> And he who will treat [me] as stranger and defame me and [my] word in this sinful, fornicating nation – the Son of the virgin will treat him as stranger before YHWH the Father, when he comes in his light with the messengers.”

9:<sup>1</sup> Then he said to them, “Also, some of you who are with me will not die, until<sup>c</sup> they see the [glory] of the kingdom of El.” <sup>2</sup> \(59v\) After<sup>d</sup> six days, he took Keipha and Ya’aqov and led them into one very high mountain. And they were all alone. And it happened – when the appearance of his face was changed, <sup>3</sup> and his garments were shining and white like snow – they were so white that no man on the earth would be able to make them. <sup>4</sup> And there appeared Mosheh and Eliyahu, and they spoke with Yeshua.

<sup>5</sup> Then Keipha answered<sup>e</sup> Yeshua, saying to him, “It is good that we make three tents here, one for you and one for Mosheh and one for Eliyahu.” <sup>6</sup> (But he did not know what he was saying,<sup>f</sup> for they were very afraid.) <sup>7</sup> And there came a cloud, making shade over them, and a voice came from the cloud, which [said], “This is my precious

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “if he owns all the world”

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “breath” which means ‘life,’ or ‘soul,’ etc. – take note, not the Greek understanding of soul.

<sup>c</sup> Heb. way of saying “before”

<sup>d</sup> Lit. “taken beyond”

<sup>e</sup> Note that the Hebrew word for “answered” is often used for responding to a certain situation, not necessarily replying to someone talking specifically to the person.

<sup>f</sup> Or “what he should say”

Son.” And they heard it. <sup>8</sup> Then immediately they looked around themselves, but saw nothing except Yeshua.

<sup>9</sup> And when they came down from the mountain, Yeshua commanded that they should not tell it to any man – this vision – until he returned alive from death. <sup>10</sup> So they kept it concealed among themselves. <sup>11</sup> And they asked him, “What does it want to say,<sup>a</sup> that the Perushim say – and the scribes after them – that it is necessary that Eliyahu should come first?” <sup>12</sup> So he answered and said, “When Eliyahu comes first, he will restore all the world. But like it is written, that the Son of Eloah will bear oppression to a disgraceful<sup>b</sup> death – <sup>13</sup> surely I say to you that Eliyahu did come to them, but they did unto him their pleasure, like the scripture says of him.”

<sup>14</sup> \(60r\) And as he was coming unto the talmidim, he found many people among them, and many wise ones and scribes arguing with them. <sup>15</sup> But when the people saw Yeshua coming, they were amazed, and went out to him to the way and [greeted] him. <sup>16</sup> And he asked them, “About what are you disputing<sup>c</sup> among yourselves?” <sup>17</sup> Then a certain man of them answered and said, “Rabbi, I led my son to you who has a satan inside him. <sup>18</sup> And in every place that he takes him, he causes him to fall and forces him to bring out spittle from his mouth, and he strikes the teeth. And I entreated your talmidim that they should heal him, but they were not able to do it.”

<sup>19</sup> Then Yeshua said, “What refusing family! How much time will I be with you? I cannot bear you. Lead the man to me.” <sup>20</sup> So they

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “what does it mean”

<sup>b</sup> Or “indecent”

<sup>c</sup> Or “disagreeing”

brought him before him. And when he saw him, immediately he<sup>a</sup> inflicted him with pain, and threw him down before him, and he was confused,<sup>b</sup> and drooling<sup>c</sup>. 21 Then Yeshua asked the father, “How much time has passed by, that he had this satan?” Then he said, “From his youth until now, 22 and continually he casts him into the fire and into the water in order to kill him. And if you are able to do it, help me by your faithful love.”

23 And Yeshua said to him, “If you are able to believe me, you will obtain of all things.”<sup>d</sup> 24 So immediately the father of the son cried out weeping, “I believe! Indeed, may it be pleasing to you that you<sup>e</sup> help my faith!”<sup>f</sup> 25 And when he saw that the people gathered together, he commanded the satan that he should go out, saying, “Strong<sup>g</sup> and dumb satan, I am commanding you that you go out from him, and afterwards you shall not return into him.” 26 Then he went out, crying out and inflicting him with pain, and the young man was left like a dead one, until many were saying that, “He is dead.” 27 But Yeshua took him by the hand and he returned alive. 28 And when they \(60v\) had entered into the house, his talmidim asked him in confidence, “Why were we not able to heal him?” 29 So he said, “This measure<sup>h</sup> of satan is not able to be healed except by prayer and fasting.”

---

<sup>a</sup> The ‘satan’

<sup>b</sup> Or “disturbed”

<sup>c</sup> Lit. “spitting”

<sup>d</sup> Or “you can/will obtain anything”

<sup>e</sup> Or “may it please you to help my faith”

<sup>f</sup> Lit. “faithfulness” – Hebrew faith is both believing and doing (being faithful).

<sup>g</sup> Or “severe”

<sup>h</sup> Meaning ‘type’

30 Then [they] departed from there, and passed by Gelilah, but he did not want that any man should know it. 31 And he was teaching his talmidim and said to them, “The Son of Eloah will be betrayed and delivered into the hand of the wicked ones, and they will put him to death, but he will return alive on the third day.” 32 But they did not understand this word, and they began to ask him.

33 Then they came into Kephars Nachum, and when they were in the house, Yeshua asked them, “What did you dispute on the way?” 34 But they were quiet, for they were disputing about which of them would be greatest. 35 So Yeshua called the twelve talmidim and said to them, “Those who [want] to be great among us will be a servant of all.”<sup>a</sup> 36 Then he took a certain child and placed him in their midst, and embraced him, and said, 37 “He who will receive [one] of these children in my name [receives] me. And he who receives me does not receive me, but receives him who sent me.”

38 Then Yochanan answered him and said, “We saw a man who was healing the satan-possessed ones in your name; but he is not of our company and because of this we refused<sup>b</sup> him.” 39 But Yeshua said to them, “Do not refuse him, for every man who does wonders in my name is not speaking evil. 40 And he who is not against us is with us. 41 Every man who will give to you one cup in my name because of this – that you are \(61r\) anointed ones – in truth I say to you that he will not lose the reward.

---

<sup>a</sup> Lit. “of all of them”

<sup>b</sup> Or perhaps “restrained”

42 But he who offends<sup>a</sup> one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be more appropriate for him that they cast him into the sea with a pair of millstones on his neck. 43 And if your hand offends, cut it off! For it is more appropriate for you to enter into the garden of Eden with one hand, than into the fire of Gei-Hinnom<sup>b</sup> with two, 44 into a place where the [viruses] do not die, and the fire does not rest. 45 And if your foot offends, cut it off! For it is more appropriate for you to enter into the garden of Eden with one, than entering with two into Gei-Hinnom, 46 into the place where the [viruses] do not die, and the fire does not rest and is not cut off.<sup>c</sup> 47 And if your eye offends, uproot it! For it is more appropriate for you to enter into the garden of Eden with one eye, than into Gei-Hinnom with two, 48 a place where the [viruses] do not die, and the fire is not quenched.

49 [to be finalised] 50 The salt is good, but if the salt is cut off<sup>d</sup> – with what will it<sup>e</sup> be boiled? There must be salt with you, and there must be shalom<sup>a</sup> with you.”

---

<sup>a</sup> The Heb. concept of ‘offend’ is to cause someone to stumble. See “stumbling-blocks” in Mat. 18:7.

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “The valley of Hinnom.” This Hebrew word is transliterated into Greek as ‘Gehenna,’ and is inaccurately translated as ‘Hell.’ This is a literal valley right next to Jerusalem, ordained for future punishment. See Matt. 25:41-46 “And then he will say to those who are on the left side... go into the fire of Gei-Hinnom, which is prepared for Ha-Satan and his messengers... And these will go into the fire of Gei-Hinnom, but the righteous ones will go into everlasting light.” To learn more about the Biblical definition of “Gei-Hinnom,” see Jer. 7:30-33; Isa. 30:33, 66:24. etc.

<sup>c</sup> Meaning ‘does not come to an end’

<sup>d</sup> Meaning ‘comes to an end’

<sup>e</sup> Does not refer to “the salt” as the salt is cut off. Rather, it refers to food that needs to be cooked with salt. May even refer to certain offerings, see e.g. Lev. 2:13, Eze. 43:24.

10:1 And Yeshua departed from there, and came unto the land of Yehudah [behind]<sup>b</sup> the Yarden river, and many people gathered there. And he was preaching to them as his custom was. 2 Then the Perushim asked him – tempting him, “Is a man able to divorce his wife?” 3 \(61v\) So Yeshua answered and said to them, “What did Mosheh command you?” 4 And they said, “Mosheh permitted that a man may write her a letter of divorce, and that he may send her away.”<sup>c</sup> 5 But Yeshua answered them saying, “He admitted this to you on account of the corruption of your heart. 6 However, YHWH created at the beginning of the world, a man and a woman – 7 and ‘A man will leave his father and his mother and take a wife, 8 and the two of them will become one flesh.’ 9 Now, that which El joins together, let no man separate.”

10 And they again asked him about this in the house, 11 and he answered them, “Whosoever, and whosoever<sup>d</sup> sends away<sup>e</sup> his wife and takes another, commits adultery. 12 And if the wife divorces her husband, she commits adultery.”

13 And the people sent, to present children to him – on account of this – that he may touch them; but the talmidim restrained those who sent them. 14 So when Yeshua saw it, he was filled with wrath and said to them, “Leave the children to come unto me! And do not restrain them, for of these is the heavenly kingdom. 15 Truth I say to you, no

---

<sup>a</sup> In Hebrew, synonymous phrases are often repeated. Here “shalom” is probably analogous of salt, thus explaining the parable. See vs. 34, 35 where the discussion started.

<sup>b</sup> Probably meaning ‘west of the Jordan river’

<sup>c</sup> Lit. “let her go away”

<sup>d</sup> Repetition in Heb. always indicates emphasis.

<sup>e</sup> Or “divorces”

man will enter into the heavenly kingdom if he does not become humble and complete, and be<sup>a</sup> like a child.”<sup>16</sup> And Yeshua was embracing them and laying the hands on them, and blessing them.

<sup>17</sup> And when he went out to the path, a certain man came and bowed down before him, entreating and saying, “Good teacher, what should we do in order that we may attain to<sup>b</sup> the heavenly kingdom?”<sup>18</sup> So Yeshua said to him, “Why are you saying to me ‘good,’ while no man is good except El? <sup>19</sup> You \(62r\) know the commandments of YHWH: ‘Do not commit adultery,’ ‘do not murder,’ ‘do not commit theft,’ ‘do not do a false witness,’ ‘do not oppress any man,’<sup>c</sup> ‘honor your father and your mother.’”<sup>20</sup> Then he answered and said to him, “All of this I established from my youth until now.”<sup>21</sup> And Yeshua looked at him, and he was pleasing to him, so he said to him, “You lack one thing: sell what you have and give it to the poor ones – then you will have a great treasure in the heavens – and come after me.”<sup>22</sup> But when he heard this, he was grieved and went away, for he was a man who had many<sup>d</sup> possessions.

<sup>23</sup> So Yeshua turned unto his talmidim and said, “What a restrained thing is this – that a man who has much money will [enter] into the kingdom of heavens.”<sup>24</sup> And the talmidim were terrified by his words. Then Yeshua again, immediately said to them, “Sons, it is very difficult for a man who trusts greatly in his riches, to be able to enter into the kingdom of El. <sup>25</sup> It is easier for a camel to go through

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “becomes”

<sup>b</sup> Or “obtain”

<sup>c</sup> See e.g. Lev. 25:17

<sup>d</sup> Or “great”

the hole of a needle, than for a rich man to go<sup>a</sup> into the kingdom of heavens.”<sup>26</sup> And they were astonished, speaking among themselves, saying, “If so, who is able to be saved?”<sup>27</sup> But Yeshua admonished, saying to them, “For you it is a restrained matter, but not to YHWH, for to El all things are possible.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Keipha began to say to him, “Behold, we left all the things<sup>b</sup> and are walking after you.”<sup>29</sup> So Yeshua answered and said, “Truth I say to you that a man who leaves his house and his brothers and his sisters, or father or mother, or children or inheritance<sup>c</sup> by \(62v\) respect<sup>d</sup> of me, or because of the good news – <sup>30</sup> he will receive a hundredfold reward. And moreover, in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and sons,<sup>e</sup> with distress, and in the world to come, everlasting life. <sup>31</sup> But many first ones will be last, and the last ones will be first.”

<sup>32</sup> And when they were in the way, going up to Yerushalayim, Yeshua went before, while they were following after him, astonished and afraid. Then again, another time he spoke with them, and began to tell them everything that would happen to him, <sup>33</sup> saying, “Behold, we are going up to Yerushalayim, and the Son of El will be delivered into the hand of the great priests and the scribes and the elders, and they will sentence<sup>f</sup> him to death. And they will deliver him to the

---

<sup>a</sup> Verb understood from the first half of the sentence.

<sup>b</sup> Or “everything”

<sup>c</sup> Or “possessions”

<sup>d</sup> Or “on account of me”

<sup>e</sup> Margin adds “and fields” in similar script as original.

<sup>f</sup> Lit. “fine”

Nephilim,<sup>a</sup> 34 and they will mock about him, and spit on him, and beat him and kill him, but he will stand up alive on the third day.”

35 Then there approached him – Ya’aqov and Yochanan, the sons of Zavdai, saying, “Rabbi, we want you to do something for us which we will ask.” 36 And Yeshua said to them, “What do you want that I should do for you?” 37 So they said, “Give to us – that one of us may sit on your right side, and the other on your left, in your light.”<sup>b</sup> 38 But Yeshua said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to bear the death which I will bear, and the dip with which I will be dipped? 39 You also will be dipped with it, 40 but to sit on my right and on my left, is not for me to give to you; but is for those whom he<sup>c</sup> prepared.”

41 And when the ten talmidim heard it, they were full of \(63r\) wrath against Ya’aqov and Yochanan. 42 But Yeshua called them and said to them, “You know that the princes and the great leaders rule over the small ones, and their officials have great power over the small ones. 43 It shall not be so among you; he who wants to be great will be your servant, 44 and he who seeks to be first will be your attendant. 45 Also, the Son of Eloah – does he come to you to be served? No, but to give his life as a ransom for many.”

46 And they came to [Yericho]<sup>d</sup> and entered into [Yericho] with his talmidim and many people. And the son of Timai – Bar-Timai – who

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “gentiles”

<sup>b</sup> Or “glory”

<sup>c</sup> “he” means ‘the Father’

<sup>d</sup> Based on Matt. 20:29

was [dried out],<sup>a</sup> was sitting close to him, <sup>47</sup> and he began to cry out, and he said, “Son of Dawid, have compassion on me!” <sup>49</sup> Then Yeshua stood and called him. And they called him and said to him, “Behold, Yeshua asks for you.” <sup>50</sup> Then he threw his garments aside, and immediately came to him. <sup>52</sup> And Yeshua said to him, “Go, for your faith<sup>b</sup> saved you.” And immediately he saw, and followed after him in the way.

11:1 And as he drew near to Yerushalayim, at the mount of olives, he sent two talmidim <sup>2</sup> and said to them, “Go to that town which is before you, and immediately when you go into its midst,<sup>c</sup> you will find a foal<sup>d</sup> bound, upon which no man has ridden. Loosen it and bring it to me. <sup>3</sup> And if any man says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ – say that, ‘Ha-Adon needs it,’ and immediately \(63v\) they will let it go.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>4</sup> So they went and found the foal bound before the door, and they loosened it. <sup>5</sup> And those who were there said to them, “Why are you loosening the foal? What are you doing!?” <sup>6</sup> Then they said what Yeshua commanded them. Then they allowed it – <sup>7</sup> to lead the foal to Yeshua.

And the talmidim laid their garments upon it, and he rode. <sup>8</sup> Then many people stripped off their garments in the way, and other people were cutting off branches from the trees and softened the road. <sup>9</sup> And

---

<sup>a</sup> Possibly a figure of speech for a dysfunctional body part, see e.g. Chapter 3:1 and Mat. 12:9.

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “faithfulness” – Hebrew faith is both believing and doing (being faithful).

<sup>c</sup> Or “inside”

<sup>d</sup> Or “young ass”

<sup>e</sup> Or “will allow it”

those who were walking before him, and those who were following after him cried out, and said, “Hoshi’einu<sup>a</sup> blessed saviour! Blessed is he who comes in the name of YHWH, <sup>10</sup> and blessed be the king who is a saviour from the heavens!”

<sup>11</sup> When they entered into Yerushalayim into the Sanctuary, he looked at everything which was inside. And in the evening he departed – into Beith-Anya<sup>b</sup> with the twelve talmidim. <sup>12</sup> And on the next day he went out of Beith-Anya, and he was very hungry. <sup>13</sup> And when he saw a fig tree from afar, he saw leaves. He went to see if he could find figs. But when he came unto it he did not find anything except leaves, for it was not the time for figs. <sup>14</sup> Then Yeshua answered, saying to it, “From now and further on, I want that no one eat fruit from you.” And the talmidim heard this, <sup>15</sup> and they came to Yerushalayim.

And when he entered into the Sanctuary he began to drive out those who sold and bought in the Sanctuary – also the acquisitions<sup>c</sup> of the exchangers and the tables of those who were selling doves, he banished and turned upside down. <sup>16</sup> (64r) And he did not allow to carry any burden into the Sanctuary. <sup>17</sup> And he taught them and said, “Is it not written that ‘My house is a house of prayer for all the peoples,’ and you [made it] a cave of thieves?” <sup>18</sup> And because the chiefs of the priests heard this – and the wise scribes – they sought how they were able to kill him. But they feared him, for all the people were astonished at his instructions.

---

<sup>a</sup> Lit. “Save us!”

<sup>b</sup> Hebrew name for ‘Bethany’

<sup>c</sup> Margin reads “shops”

19 And when it became evening he departed from the city. 20 In the morning, when they passed by the fig tree, they saw that it was dried up unto the roots. 21 And then Keipha recalled and said unto him, “Rabbi, behold the fig tree which you cursed, that it dried up!” 22 But Yeshua answered and said unto him, “You must have good faith<sup>a</sup> in YHWH, 23 for I say to you in truth, everyone who, and whosoever will say to a mountain, ‘Get up, and go into the sea’ – and will not doubt in his heart – immediately it will be done. 24 And for your sake I say to you, that in all your prayers you must have strong faith<sup>b</sup> in El, and you will obtain everything – whatever you ask. 25 And when you stand<sup>c</sup> in prayer, you must forgive – if you have any resentment against any man – in order that your heavenly Father may forgive your iniquities for you. 27 And immediately they entered into Yerushalayim.

And when he went into the Sanctuary, there approached him – the chiefs of the priests and the wise scribes and the elders, 28 and they said to him, “By what power are you doing these wonders?” And, “Who gave you this power, that you do this?” 29 (64v) So Yeshua answered and said to them, “I myself will ask you one thing – answer me, and afterwards I will tell you by what power I am doing these things. 30 The dipping of Yochanan, was it from the heavens or from men? Answer me!” 31 And they devised among<sup>d</sup> themselves, “If we say, ‘It is from the heavens,’ he will say to us, ‘If so, why did you not believe him?’ 32 and if we say ‘From men,’ we fear the people, for all

---

<sup>a</sup> Lit. “faithfulness” – Hebrew faith is both believing and doing (being faithful).

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “faithfulness” – Hebrew faith is both believing and doing (being faithful).

<sup>c</sup> Or “abide”

<sup>d</sup> Or “they thought in themselves”

of them establish<sup>a</sup> in truth that Yochanan was a prophet.”<sup>33</sup> And Yeshua answered and said to them, “I also will not tell you by what power I am doing these things.”

12:<sup>1</sup> And he began to tell them comparisons and said, “A certain man planted a vineyard and properly closed it in with thorns, and dug it and built a tower in it, and hired it to labourers of the ground – then he went on a long journey. <sup>2</sup> And when he returned in his time,<sup>b</sup> he sent his servants to the labourers to receive the fruit of the vineyard. <sup>3</sup> But they seized them and beat them, and sent them away with empty hands. <sup>4</sup> Again he sent other servants, and they wounded them in the head, and despised them. <sup>5</sup> Again he sent another, but him they killed. <sup>6</sup> Then again he sent his exceeding precious son, and said, ‘Perhaps they will lift up honour<sup>c</sup> to my son.’ <sup>7</sup> But the labourers spoke together, ‘This is the heir – come, and let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.’ <sup>8</sup> So they took him and killed him, and cast him outside the vineyard. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, what will the man of the vineyard do when he comes? \(65r\) He will exterminate the labourers, and rent out the vineyard to others. <sup>10</sup> And did you never read this scripture? ‘The stone which the builders rejected’ – it will be rejected by the builders! – ‘it was set as the cornerstone, <sup>11</sup> and this was done by our Elohim, it is so wonderful<sup>d</sup> in our eyes.’”

<sup>12</sup> Then they wanted to lay hold of him, but they feared the people, for they recognised that he told this figure because of them – so they

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “confirm”

<sup>b</sup> Or perhaps ‘when it returned into its time’ meaning ‘when it became time (for the harvest)’

<sup>c</sup> Or “show respect”

<sup>d</sup> Lit. “it is full of such wonder in our eyes”

went away and left him. <sup>13</sup> Then afterwards they sent to him, some of the Perushim and some of the men of Herod, to catch him on account of<sup>a</sup> some word. <sup>14</sup> And when they came, they said to him, “Rabbi, we know and recognise that you are truthful<sup>b</sup> and do not set the heart upon any man; for you do not judge according to the appearance of man, but teach<sup>c</sup> the way of YHWH in truthfulness. Therefore tell us, are we indebted to give tribute to Caesar or not?”

<sup>15</sup> But Yeshua recognised their falsehood, and said, “Why do you tempt me? Bring an ordinary coin to me, that I may see it.” <sup>16</sup> And they brought it to him. So Yeshua said, “Of whom is this image, and the writing on the top?” And they said, “Of Caesar.” <sup>17</sup> Then Yeshua said to them, “Return to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to El what is of El.” And they stood amazed because of him.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>18</sup> Then came unto him the Tsaduqim<sup>e</sup> who said that there would be no resurrection. And they asked him, saying, <sup>19</sup> “Rabbi, Mosheh wrote for us, saying that if the brother of any man dies, and leaves his wife with no child, that his brother which is left should take the woman \(65v\) to raise up seed<sup>f</sup> for his brother. <sup>20</sup> Therefore, there were seven brothers: the first took a wife, but died with no children. <sup>21</sup> And afterwards the second took her – also this man did not leave seed.

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “because of”

<sup>b</sup> Or “faithful”

<sup>c</sup> Lit. “show”

<sup>d</sup> Or “it”

<sup>e</sup> “Tsaduqim” is the original Hebrew word for ‘Sadducees,’ and literally means ‘Zadokites’ or ‘descendants of Tsadoq,’ i.e. Zadok the priest. See e.g. Eze. 44:15. In these Hebrew Gospels this word is normally spelled as ‘Tsadiqim’ meaning ‘Righteous Ones.’ The two alternative spellings are a play on words, it seems that the ‘Sadducees’ enjoyed being called ‘Righteous Ones.’

<sup>f</sup> Or “offspring” or “descendants”

And the third did like this, <sup>22</sup> and to all seven she was a wife. <sup>23</sup> In the resurrection, of which of all these will she be a wife?”

<sup>24</sup> So Yeshua answered and said to them, “You err, and<sup>a</sup> you do not understand the scriptures and the power of YHWH. <sup>25</sup> When the dead ones will live, they will not have wives, and they<sup>b</sup> will not have husbands. But they will be like the messengers of the heavens before El. <sup>26</sup> And concerning the dead ones – that they will rise – did you never read in the book of Mosheh, when El appeared to him in the thornbush, saying, ‘I am the Elohim of Avraham,<sup>c</sup> the Elohim of Yitschaq,<sup>d</sup> and the Elohim of Ya’aqov’? <sup>27</sup> He is not the Eloah of the dead ones, but of the living ones – so in this you are greatly erring.”

<sup>28</sup> Then there approached him a certain scribe who heard them arguing, and recognized that he answered well – and he asked him, “Which commandment is the chief<sup>e</sup> in Yisrael?” <sup>29</sup> So Yeshua answered and said, “The chief commandment is, ‘Hear Yisrael, your Elohim – Adon<sup>f</sup> is one. <sup>30</sup> Him you must love with all your heart and with all your nephesh, and with all your thoughts, and with all your strength.’ This is the chief commandment.<sup>g</sup> <sup>31</sup> And the second is like this, ‘...but you must love your fellow<sup>h</sup> as yourself.’ And there is no other commandment greater than this.” <sup>32</sup> Then that wise one said to

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “for”

<sup>b</sup> The word “they” is feminine plural in Hebrew, so it means “and they (the women) will not have husbands.”

<sup>c</sup> Hebrew name for ‘Abraham’

<sup>d</sup> Hebrew name for ‘Isaac’

<sup>e</sup> Or ‘main object’ – lit. “root”

<sup>f</sup> ‘Adon’ or ‘Ha-Adon’ is often used for YHWH in quotations from the Tanach.

<sup>g</sup> Lit. “the root of the commandment”

<sup>h</sup> Or “neighbor”

him, “Rabbi, it is a great truth,<sup>a</sup> that there is none besides one Eloah, and there is none other except him – <sup>33</sup> he whom a man is obligated to love with all the heart and with all the nephesh, and with all the strength – also to love his fellow as himself – and this is greater than all the human offerings.” <sup>34</sup> \(66r\) And when he heard that he answered with wisdom, he told him that he was not far from the kingdom of YHWH. And from there and onwards, no man had it in his power to set him any [question].

<sup>35</sup> And Yeshua answered and taught in the Sanctuary, “What do the wise scribes say, whose son is he?<sup>b</sup> <sup>36</sup> Dawid spoke, prophesying about him, ‘Ha-Adon said to my Adon, ‘Sit on my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool.’” <sup>37</sup> Thus, if Dawid calls him his Adon, how is he his son?” And all the people listened to him with pleasure.

<sup>38</sup> Then Yeshua warned them saying, “Beware of the wise ones knowing literature – who take pleasure in that they wear comely garments, and that the merchants give them shalom.<sup>c</sup> <sup>39</sup> And that they sit in the foremost seat in the houses of gathering, that they<sup>d</sup> honour them, and that they are first at the table. <sup>40</sup> They who uproot<sup>e</sup> the

---

<sup>a</sup> Or perhaps ‘it is true that this is greatest’

<sup>b</sup> See Mat. 22:41-43

<sup>c</sup> Or “that the merchants should greet them”

<sup>d</sup> The people

<sup>e</sup> Or “destroy”

houses and the widows with their lying<sup>a</sup> prayers. And for this they will bear more great<sup>b</sup> punishment in the day of judgment.”

41 And Yeshua sat before [the treasury], where they placed the treasure of the Sanctuary – and he looked in what way the people were offering its gifts there. And many rich ones offered great things.

42 Then there came a poor woman, and offered two [small coins]. 43 So Yeshua called his talmidim and said, “Truth I say to you that – that poor woman<sup>c</sup> offered more than herself, 44 for they are sufficient<sup>d</sup> ones, but this poor woman gave all her eating.”

13:1 \(66v\) And when they went out of the Sanctuary, one of his talmidim said to him, “Rabbi, look what buildings and what stones!”

2 But Yeshua answered and said, “Do you see these great buildings? A stone will not be left upon a stone – that will not be thrown down.”

3 And when he sat on the Mount of Olives, opposite the Sanctuary, Keipha and Ya’aqov and Yochanan and Andrai asked him in confidence, 4 “Tell us, when will these things happen? And the sign – when will the end of the world happen, that all things will begin to deteriorate?<sup>e</sup> 5 And Yeshua answered them, and began by saying, “Look, watch out that no man deceives you, 6 for many will come in the world in my name – saying that, ‘I am he,’ and many will be deceived. 7 However, when you see great wars, or the beginnings of

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “deceiving” or “false”

<sup>b</sup> Could mean “greater punishment” (modern usage) or “excess of great punishment” (possible in Biblical Hebrew).

<sup>c</sup> The “poor one” is feminine singular in Hebrew, thus it must necessarily refer to a woman.

<sup>d</sup> Or “abundant”

<sup>e</sup> Or “be spoiled”

wars – do not fear, for it is obligated that this happens, but it will not yet be the end. <sup>8</sup> And peoples will rise up against peoples,<sup>a</sup> and king against king, and there will be shakings<sup>b</sup> on the earth, and famine, and they will be the beginnings of the pains.

<sup>9</sup> Then, guard yourselves, for they will lead you into [their] councils, and in the houses of their gatherings they will beat you. And they<sup>c</sup> will stand before the kings and the princes, to bear witness of me as a testimony for them. <sup>10</sup> For it is first necessary that the heavenly kingdom be preached to all the peoples. <sup>11</sup> And when they lead you away as captured ones, do not fear about what you yourselves will say – you must speak according as Ruach Ha-Qodesh will direct you in that hour. You yourselves must not speak, but Ruach Ha-Qodesh will speak through you.

<sup>12</sup> \(67r\) And the one brother will deliver his brother to death, and the father the son. And the sons will rise up against their father, and against their mother, and oppress them to death,<sup>d</sup> <sup>13</sup> and everyone<sup>e</sup> be angry,<sup>f</sup> but he who will continue until the end, he will be saved.

<sup>14</sup> And when you will see the desolating abomination standing in the place which is not appropriate – he who reads will understand it – and then those who are in Yehudah must flee to the mountains, <sup>15</sup> and whosoever will be in the roof chamber must not come down into the

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “And nations will rise up against each other”

<sup>b</sup> Or “earthquakes”

<sup>c</sup> Hebrew often switches person without changing subject, see e.g. Deu. 32:13,14 and Psa. 115:11.

<sup>d</sup> Or “drive them to death”

<sup>e</sup> Heb. “הכל” could also mean ‘many’ or ‘most’ house, <sup>16</sup> and he who will be in the field must not return back to fetch his garments. <sup>17</sup> And woe to them who will be pregnant and those who will be nursing in those days! <sup>18</sup> Entreat the face of El that this does not come at the time of the cold, <sup>19</sup> for at that time there will be excess of distress in the world – which never happened since the day that YHWH created the world until now, and neither will happen afterwards. <sup>20</sup> And if YHWH does not shorten that time, no flesh will be saved. But for the sake of chosen ones which he chose, he will shorten the days.

<sup>f</sup> Or “provoke to anger”

<sup>21</sup> And then, if any man says to you, ‘Behold, Mashiach is here,’ or, ‘Behold, Mashiach is there,’ do not believe. <sup>22</sup> Then lying prophets will arise, showing signs and wonders to destroy also – if it were possible to do so – the chosen ones. <sup>23</sup> Beware, I tell you before it happens!

<sup>24</sup> And in those days, after<sup>a</sup> that distress, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not shine. <sup>25</sup> And the stars will fall from the heavens, and the powers of the heavens will shake.<sup>b</sup> <sup>26</sup> Then they will see the Son of Eloah coming from the heavens with great power and light.<sup>c</sup> <sup>27</sup> \(67v\) And then he will send his messengers, and they will gather his chosen ones from the four ends of the earth – from the heavens and unto the earth.

<sup>28</sup> Receive the parable of the fig tree – when it begins to [grow] and to make leaves, you yourselves know that the summer is approaching. <sup>29</sup> Just so, when you will see these things, you yourselves must know

---

<sup>a</sup> Lit. “taken beyond”

<sup>b</sup> Or “be shaken”

<sup>c</sup> Or “glory”

that the end of the world is approaching unto the door. <sup>30</sup> Truth I say to you that – that generation will not pass away until all these things come to pass. <sup>31</sup> The heavens and the earth will pass away, but the words of Eloah will not pass away. <sup>32</sup> That day and that hour, one does not know, not even the messengers of the heavens, nor the Son, but the Father.

<sup>33</sup> Beware, and be awake, and pray, for you do not know the time nor the hour – <sup>34</sup> like the man who went on a journey and left his house, and gave power to his servants, and commanded [to be finalized] that he be awake. <sup>35</sup> Therefore, be awake! For you do not know the day and the hour that the Adon of the house will come – in the evening, or the middle of the night, or at the rooster crowing, or the morning. <sup>36</sup> Lest when he comes he finds you sleeping. <sup>37</sup> And what I say to you, to all I am saying it – be awake!”

14:<sub>1</sub> When the Pesach<sup>a</sup> was near, and the day of unleavened bread was close – two days – the chiefs of the priests and the scribes of the law endeavoured how they were able to capture Yeshua with falsehood, \(68r\) so that they could put him to death. <sub>2</sub> But they said, “Let us not do it on the day of the Feast, in order that the people not be raised up.”<sup>b</sup>

<sub>3</sub> And when he was in the house of Shimon Leper in Beith-Anyā – as he sat at the table – a woman came with an alabaster box, full of precious [ointment] of nard. And she broke it, and poured the ointment upon his head. <sub>4</sub> And others were there, who were angry among themselves, “Why was this loss made with the ointment? <sub>5</sub>

---

<sup>a</sup> Hebrew name for ‘Passover’

<sup>b</sup> Meaning ‘not be raised up in an uproar’

For we would be able to sell it for more than three hundred coins – and that it could be given to the poor ones.” And they murmured against her.

6 But Yeshua said to them, “Do not [restrain]<sup>a</sup> her, why are you sad? Know that she did a good work, 7 for you will always have the poor ones, and when you want to, you are able to have them, but I will not always be with you. 8 For of herself, she did to me what she had,<sup>b</sup> and she hastened to anoint me myself<sup>c</sup> before the burial. 9 Truth I say to you, in every place where this good news will be reported, a man will tell that she – in remembrance of me – she did this.”

10 And Yehudah Ish-Qerioth, one of the twelve talmidim went to the highest priests to deliver him to them. 11 And when they heard it they were exceedingly glad, and they vowed to give him money. And he was seeking [readiness],<sup>d</sup> how he would be able to deliver him.

12 And a former day of \(68v\) the unleavened bread, when they prepare the Pesach, the talmidim said to him, “Where do you want that we go and prepare the Pesach for you, that you may eat?” 13 Then he sent two of the talmidim, and said to them, “Go into the city, and you will encounter a certain man who is carrying a barrel of water – go after him. 14 And in the place where he enters, you must say to the master of the house, ‘The Rav says, ‘Where is my house<sup>e</sup> where I can eat the Pesach with my talmidim?’ 15 And he will show you a large eating

---

<sup>a</sup> Or perhaps ‘blame’

<sup>b</sup> Or “what she could”

<sup>c</sup> Lit. “my heart” – more emphasis than just ‘me’

<sup>d</sup> Or perhaps ‘seeking a fixed place, where he would’

<sup>e</sup> Or “place”

house,<sup>a</sup> and there you must prepare it – so go!”<sup>16</sup> Then the talmidim went and came into the city, and found it according as Yeshua said to them, and they prepared the Pesach.

<sup>17</sup> And when it was evening, Yeshua came with the twelve talmidim – <sup>18</sup> and while they were sitting, Yeshua said to them, “Truth I say to you that one of you who eats with me will betray me.”<sup>19</sup> Then they were grieved, and everyone began to say, “Adon, is it I?”<sup>20</sup> But he said to them, “It is one of the twelve who is placing the hand into the dish with me.<sup>21</sup> The Son of Eloah is passing away just like the prophecy says. Woe to him! – To the man by whom the Son of the virgin will be betrayed! It would have been a good thing for him – for that man – if he were not born!”

<sup>22</sup> And as they were eating, he took the bread, and said, “This is myself.”<sup>b</sup><sup>23</sup> And he took the cup, and did a prayer of thanksgiving, and gave to them, and they drank from it.<sup>24</sup> And he said to them, “This is my blood, which is shed for the sake of many.<sup>25</sup> Truth \(69r\) I say to you that I will not drink of the wine of the vine, until I will certainly<sup>c</sup> drink it new in the kingdom of my Father.”

<sup>26</sup> And when they had done a prayer of thanksgiving, they went out into the Mount of Olives.<sup>27</sup> And Yeshua said to them, “All of you will be offended in me in this night, for it is written, ‘I will smite the shepherd and the flock will be scattered.’<sup>28</sup> However, when I return alive, I will be with you in Gelilah.”<sup>29</sup> Then Keipha said, “Even if all of them will be offended, I will not be.”<sup>30</sup> But Yeshua said to him,

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “place”

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “my heart”

<sup>c</sup> Lit. “with certainty”

“Truth I say to you, in this night, before the cock crows two times, you will be denying me three times.” <sup>31</sup> And he spoke again, saying, “Even if I will be forced to die with you, I will not deny you.” And so all the others said as well.

<sup>32</sup> Then they came into a field which name is Gath-Shemeinah,<sup>a</sup> and he said to his talmidim, “Sit here while I [finish] praying.” <sup>33</sup> Then he took with him Keipha and Ya’aqov and Yochanan, and he began to pray, and to be alarmed, <sup>34</sup> and said to them, “My nephesh is grieved unto death, tarry here with me, and be [awake]. <sup>35</sup> And when he had bowed a little, he bowed with his face to the earth, and prayed to YHWH – if it were possible to do – that that hour pass by. <sup>36</sup> And he said, “Father who is able – remove this death from me, however, let it not be according to my will, but according to your will.”

<sup>37</sup> Then he came and found them sleeping, and he said to Keipha, \(69v\) even to Shimon, “Are you sleeping? And were you not able to be [awake] with me? <sup>38</sup> Be awake and pray, in order that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit is ready, but the flesh is weak.” <sup>39</sup> Then another time he went to pray, with that same speech. <sup>40</sup> And when he returned, he found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy, and they were not able to answer him. <sup>41</sup> He came again, and said to them, “Are you sleeping? Is it not enough? The hour is come that the Son of the virgin will be delivered into the hands of the sinners. <sup>42</sup> Stand up, and let us go, for – behold – he is close who will betray me!”

<sup>43</sup> While he was speaking, Yehudah Ish-Qerioth came – one of the twelve talmidim – and with him many people with swords and staves.

---

<sup>a</sup> Hebrew name for ‘Gethsemane’

And he was sent by the ruler of the priests, and by the wise scribes, and the elders of the people. <sup>44</sup> And the traitor gave them this sign, saying, “He whom I will kiss, it is he – capture him, and bring him with prudence.” <sup>45</sup> And immediately when he came, he drew near to him, saying, “Shalom be upon you Rabbi!” And he kissed him. <sup>46</sup> So they laid the hands on him and seized him.

<sup>47</sup> And one of those who were with Yeshua took out the sword and smote the servant of the ruler of the priests, and cut off his ear. <sup>48</sup> And Yeshua answered and said to them, \(70r\) “Did you come out with swords and staffs as if I were a thief, to seize him?<sup>a</sup> <sup>49</sup> All the day<sup>b</sup> I was with you, teaching in the Sanctuary, and you did not seize me. This is done to fulfil the scriptures.” <sup>50</sup> And then all the talmidim fled and left him.

<sup>51</sup> And there was a certain young man, Malbishan,<sup>c</sup> who was clothed with one white [linen sheet], and they seized him; <sup>52</sup> but he let go of the [linen sheet] and fled from them totally naked.

<sup>53</sup> So they led Yeshua to the ruler of the priests – and all the priests and the wise scribes, and the elders of the people gathered together. <sup>54</sup> And Keipha walked after him from afar, unto a palace of the high priest – and he was sitting before the fire with the attendants, and they warmed themselves. <sup>55</sup> And the high priest and all the council were seeking false witnesses, so that they would be able to deliver him to death; but they did not find them. <sup>56</sup> Now many false witnesses were speaking against Yeshua, but they did not agree.

---

<sup>a</sup> “him” referring to the ‘thief,’ Hebrew style.

<sup>b</sup> A Hebrew idiom meaning “continually,” or “all the time”

<sup>c</sup> Prob. his nickname meaning something like ‘clother’

57 Then some false witnesses stood up against him, saying, 58 “We ourselves heard that he said, ‘I myself will tear down this Sanctuary made with human hands, and within three other days I will build it – silently<sup>a</sup> made with human hands.’” 59 But their witness did not agree.<sup>b</sup> 60 So the high priest stood up in their midst, and asked Yeshua, saying, “Are you not counting the sins that these set against you?” 61 But Yeshua was silent, and did not answer a word.

And another time the high priest \(70v\) asked him, saying, “Are you Ben-Mashiach, the Son of YHWH the blessed?” 62 So Yeshua answered and said, “I am he! And you will see the Son of Eloah at the right hand of the power of El, coming with the clouds of the heavens.” 63 Then the high priest rent his garments and said to them, “Will you ask anything after this? And do you long for witnesses? 64 You have heard his blasphemy. What is your understanding of this?” And all of them condemned him. 65 Then they spat upon him, and covered his face and beat him on his neck.<sup>c</sup> And they smote him and said, “Prophecy! Who [smote you]?” And the attendants gave him blows.

66 And as Keipha was on one side of the palace, a certain maidservant of the high priest came. 67 And when [she] saw Keipha who was putting on his shoe – looking at him [she] said, “You also were with Yeshua of Netsereth.” 68 But he denied, “I do not know and I do not recognize what you are saying.” Then he went outside and stood <sup>a</sup> Or “secretly” – can also have the idea of “magically” – but take note that this was the accusation of a false witness.

---

<sup>b</sup> The difference between Matthew and Mark is perhaps due to the fact that the two witnesses did not agree!

<sup>c</sup> Or “back”

before the palace, and the rooster crowed. <sup>69</sup> And immediately a maidservant saw him, and she began to say to those who were around her, “This is one of them.” <sup>70</sup> But he denied it again. And a little later, again, one of those<sup>a</sup> who sat there said to Keipha, “In truth, you are one of them, for in truth you are a Gelili!”<sup>b</sup> <sup>71</sup> But he began to curse and to swear – that he did not know who that man was whom she was talking about! <sup>72</sup> Then immediately the rooster crowed another time. And afterwards Keipha remembered the word which Yeshua said to him – \(71r\) that before the rooster would crow two times, he would deny him three times – and he began to [weep].

15:<sub>1</sub> And early morning there gathered together to the council – the great priests, and the wise scribes, and the elders of the people. And they laid hold of him, and bound him, and led him to the presence<sup>c</sup> of Pilate, and delivered him to him. <sub>2</sub> And Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of Yisrael?” And he answered, “You are saying it.” <sub>3</sub> But the great priests slandered him with so many words. So Pilate again asked him, “Are you the King of Yisrael?” And Yeshua answered and said, “You are saying it.” And the great priests were still slandering him with many things. <sub>4</sub> Then Pilate again asked him saying, “Why are you not answering anything to these who are slandering<sup>d</sup> you with so many things?” <sub>5</sub> Yeshua did not answer after this, and it was incredible [to] Pilate.

---

<sup>a</sup> Feminine plural in Hebrew, thus “one of the maidservants who sat there”

<sup>b</sup> Hebrew name for ‘Galilean’

<sup>c</sup> Or “and brought him before Pilate”

<sup>d</sup> Or perhaps ‘accusing’

6 Now Pilate was accustomed to give one prisoner – which they asked – at this Feast. 7 And then<sup>a</sup> he was retaining captured, a man whose name was Bar-Even<sup>b</sup> – he who made a murder in a certain contest, and because of the murder was placed in prison. 8 Then the people came and began to entreat him – as he knew – that he should give them one captured one. 9 So Pilate answered them and said, “Do you want that I release for you the King of the Yehudim?” 10 (For he knew \(71v\) that the highest priests delivered him because of jealousy.)

11 But the rulers admonished the people that they should ask for Bar-Even, that he may return to them. 12 Then Pilate said to them another time, “What do you want that I do with the King of the Yehudim?” 13 And they cried out, “Hang him up!” 14 Then Pilate said to them, “And what evil did he do to you?” But they still<sup>c</sup> cried out, “Hang him up!” 15 So Pilate, wanting to do the pleasure of the people, gave Bar-Even to them – and delivered Yeshua to them, beaten, to put him to death.

16 And the [soldiers] with the attendants led him to the palace of the officer, and there the people gathered together. 17 Then [they clothed him] with scarlet, and placed a crown of thorns on his head, 18 and began to give him shalom,<sup>d</sup> “May YHWH save you, King of the Yehudim!” 19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and spat in his face, and knelt and prayed to him. 20 And when they had

---

<sup>a</sup> Meaning ‘at that time’

<sup>b</sup> Or “Bar-Ravan,” meaning ‘Son of a Teacher.’ Bar-Even means ‘Son of a Stone.’ Not the same meaning as the Greek (from Aramaic) ‘Barabba(s),’ which means ‘Son of the Father.’

<sup>c</sup> Or “more”

<sup>d</sup> Meaning “began to greet him”

mocked him exceedingly, they stripped him of the scarlet garment, and clothed him with his own garments, and led him away to hang him up.

21 And they forced a man who was passing by that place – whose name was Shimon, a servant who came from his city, [the father of Alexandria and Ruphus] – that he carry his warp and woof. 22 And they led him to Golgotha. ( )<sup>a</sup> 23 And they gave him wine [of myrrh] to drink, but he did not want to drink it. 24 And when they had hanged him up, they divided his garments, and they cast lots over them – what \(72r\) every one of them would take.

25 Now it was the third hour when they hanged him up. 26 And they set a writing over him, “This is Yeshua Notsri, the king of the Yehudim.” 27 Then they hanged up two thieves with him, one to the right and the other to the left. 28 Then the scripture was fulfilled, which says, “He was numbered with the wicked ones.”

29 And those who were passing by that place,<sup>b</sup> were cursing him, shaking their head, saying, “You, you were saying that you would lay waste the Sanctuary of YHWH – and you, after three days you would build it – 30 save yourself! Come down from the warp and woof!” 31 And like this the highest priests were speaking, jesting with each other and with the scribes, “He made others saved ones, but he is not able to save himself!” 32 “If you are the Mashiach of Yisrael, come down from the warp and woof that we may see it and believe in you!” And those who were hanged up with him made funeral speeches.<sup>c</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> Ms. Inserts gloss, “meaning: mount Calvary”

<sup>b</sup> Lit. “by there”

<sup>c</sup> Or “mournings”

33 And around the sixth hour, there came darkness in all the land<sup>a</sup> until the ninth hour. 34 And at the ninth hour Yeshua called out with a loud voice, “Eli,<sup>b</sup> Eli! Why did you forsake me?!” 35 And some of those who were standing there, when they heard it said, “See how he calls Eli-Yahu.” 36 Then one of them ran quickly, and bound a sponge onto a reed, \(72v\) and filled it with vinegar, and they gave to him to drink. But some said, “Leave him, and let us see if Eliyahu will come to deliver him.” 37 Then Yeshua called out with a loud voice, and blowed with his ruach.<sup>c</sup> 38 The Sanctuary was broken in two sides,<sup>d</sup> upwards and downwards. 39 And the Centurion who was waiting there – when he saw that he was taken over<sup>e</sup> with a loud voice, said, “This man is<sup>f</sup> the Son of El.”

40 And there were some women there who came from afar to see him, and in their midst were Miryam Magdalith, and Miryam the mother of Ya’aqov Small and of Yoseph, and the mother of Shelomi 41 – for when he was in Gelilah they were walking with him – and they came with many others,<sup>g</sup> who came from Yerushalayim.

42 And as it became evening, already entering into the Feast of the Unleavened Bread – that is – before the Shabbath,<sup>h</sup> 43 came Yoseph of

---

<sup>a</sup> Or perhaps “earth”

<sup>b</sup> Eli = “My El,” and sounds like the first part of Eli-Yahu’s name.

<sup>c</sup> The Hebrew word Ruach could mean either spirit or wind (breath), and it is probably used here with a double meaning.

<sup>d</sup> Or “parts”

<sup>e</sup> Or perhaps ‘had passed away’

<sup>f</sup> Or “was”

<sup>g</sup> “many others” are feminine plural in Hebrew, thus ‘many other women’

<sup>h</sup> Meaning it was not the 15th of Aviv yet. Passover and Unleavened Bread were used interchangeably. The Feast of Passover/Unleavened Bread starts on the 14th of Aviv, Ramathayim<sup>a</sup> (an honoured man who was waiting for the kingdom of heavens) and he went in to Pilate with diligence, and asked the body of Yeshua of him.<sup>b</sup> 44 Then Pilate was amazed at whether he was already dead. 45 So he asked him who executed the judgment – whether he was already dead. And when he came to know it by him who executed the judgment, he gave him the body of Yeshua.

46 Now Yoseph had bought a fair white garment,<sup>c</sup> and he took down the body from the warp and woof, and wrapped it with it, and laid it in a grave of hewn-out stone, and placed a great stone on the opening of the grave. 47 (73r) Miryam Magdalith and Miryam the mother of Yoseph saw where the body of Yeshua was laid.

16:1 And when the Shabbath<sup>d</sup> had passed over, Miryam Magdalith and Miryam the mother of Ya’aqov and Shelomi,<sup>e</sup> bought precious ointment in order to anoint Yeshua.

2 And they came to the grave in the morning of the day after the weekly Shabbath,<sup>f</sup> and the sun was already coming up. 3 Now they were speaking among themselves, “Who will throw off the stone for us from the opening which is in the grave?” 4 Then they looked and saw the stone, overthrown! 5 And when they entered into the grave, before sunset, while the high Sabbath starts at sunset, which marks the beginning of the 15th of Aviv. See e.g. Num. 9:11.

---

<sup>a</sup> The Hebrew name for ‘Arimathea’

<sup>b</sup> Or “for himself,” Hebrew ambiguous

<sup>c</sup> Or “cloth”

<sup>d</sup> This was the high Sabbath of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, not the weekly Sabbath.

<sup>e</sup> Or “Shelomith” - The Hebrew name for ‘Salome’

<sup>f</sup> “the day after” – this was the morning of the Feast of First Fruits, which was always “the day after” the weekly Sabbath (see Lev. 23:11). Matthew 28:1 makes it clear that this was the first “day one,” i.e. the day after the weekly Sabbath.

they saw, sitting at the right side, a young man clothed with a white garment, and they feared. <sup>6</sup> But he said to them, “Do not fear, you are seeking Yeshua Notsri who was hanged – he is not here! See, this is the place where they laid him. <sup>7</sup> Go immediately to the talmidim, and to Keipha, and say to them that he will be<sup>a</sup> before them in Gelilah – there you will see him, like [he] said to you.”

<sup>8</sup> Then they departed, and fled away from the grave according to the greatness of their fear, and they trembled, and did not tell any man a thing.

<sup>9</sup> Now Yeshua, when he had returned alive – the first day<sup>b</sup> in the morning, he first appeared to Miryam Magdalith – her from whom he drove out seven demons. <sup>10</sup> Then she went and reported to the others who had been<sup>c</sup> with Yeshua, who continued mourning and groaning and weeping and sighing. <sup>11</sup> When they heard that he returned alive, and that she saw him, \(73v\) they did not believe it. <sup>12</sup> And after this he appeared in the form of strangers<sup>d</sup> to two talmidim who were walking to a certain city. <sup>13</sup> Then they went and recounted it to his other talmidim, but they did not believe it.

<sup>14</sup> And after one day, when all eleven talmidim were sitting at the table to eat, Yeshua appeared to them, to discriminate their refusal, and the hardness of their heart, that they did not believe those who saw him – that he returned alive. <sup>15</sup> And he said to them, “Go into all

---

<sup>a</sup> See Mat. 28:7 and footnote

<sup>b</sup> Not ‘on the first day.’ Yeshua did not rise on the first day, but he first appeared on the first day.

<sup>c</sup> Lit. “stood”

<sup>d</sup> Heb. way of speaking. Yeshua met them and started talking with them as if he were a stranger. See Luke 24:13-31.

the world, preach the word of the King of the heavens to every creation.<sup>a</sup> <sup>16</sup> He who believes and is dipped, he will be saved. But he who does not believe will be destroyed.<sup>b</sup> <sup>17</sup> And these are the things that they who believe will do: they will heal in my name the satan-possessed ones, and they will speak with alternative<sup>c</sup> languages, <sup>18</sup> no kind of beast or venomous serpent will damage them, and they will lay the hands on the sick ones, and they will be healed.”

<sup>19</sup> And our Adon Yeshua Mashiach – after he spoke to them – went up to the heavens, and sat down at the right hand of YHWH. <sup>20</sup> And they went into all the world to preach, with YHWH supporting<sup>d</sup> them with many good things and with wonders which they did.

Complete, finished and sealed.

Here the chapters of Matithyahu – 54, and the chapters of Mark – 16, are completed.<sup>e</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup> Or “created thing”

<sup>b</sup> Or “wiped out”

<sup>c</sup> Or “exchanged”

<sup>d</sup> Or “with the help of YHWH”

<sup>e</sup> In this ms. Mark does have 16 standard chapters, however, Matthew is divided into 54 chapters. In our translation of Matthew we rather used the standard division of 28 chapters, in order to make it easy to compare with any standard translation of Matthew. The ms. has no verse numbers, and these were also inserted to align with other translations of the New Testament.

Glossary

Adon	The Hebrew word for 'Master.' 'Adon' or 'Ha-Adon' is often used for YHWH in quotations from the Old Testament.
Andrai	Hebrew name for 'Andrew'
Avraham	Hebrew name for 'Abraham'
Bar-Even	Bar-Even means 'Son of a Stone.' Hebrew could also be read as "Bar-Ravan," meaning 'Son of a Teacher.' Not the same meaning as the Greek (from Aramaic) 'Barabba(s),' which means 'Son of the Father.'
Beith-Anyah	Hebrew name for 'Bethany'
Gelilah	Hebrew name for 'Galilee'
El	Usually translated as 'God.' In Hebrew however, the word 'luck' or 'fortune' is pronounced as "gad" and sometimes as "god" (medieval) – see e.g. Gen. 30:10-11; Josh. 11:17; Isa. 65:11. Therefore we prefer to not use 'God.'
Eloah	Same meaning as El, see above note.
Elohim	Plural form of Eloah, see above note.
Eliyahu	Hebrew name for 'Elijah'
Gei-Hinnom:	Lit. "The valley of (the son of) Hinnom." This Hebrew word is transliterated into Greek as 'Gehenna,' and is inaccurately translated as 'Hell.' This is a literal valley right next to Jerusalem ordained for future punishment. See Mat. chapter 25:41-46, "And then he will say to those who are on the left side... go into the fire of Gei-Hinnom, which is prepared for Ha-

Satan and his messengers... And these will go into the fire of Gei-Hinnom, but the righteous ones will go into everlasting light.” To learn more about the Biblical definition of “Gei-Hinnom,” see Jer. 7:30-33; Isa. 30:33, 66:24. etc.

Ha-Satan

Lit. ‘The Adversary.’ Because it is often used as a name in these gospels (See e.g. Mat 4:10) we have transliterated the name instead of translating it, as with all other names.

Keipha

The Aramaic name for ‘Peter,’ Greek transliteration ‘Cephas.’ A number of Aramaic nouns were used in post-exilic Hebrew.

Kephar Nachum

The Hebrew name for ‘Capernaum’

Menorah

The Hebrew word for ‘lampstand’

Mashiach

The Hebrew word for ‘Messiah.’ The Hebrew word which was translated into the Greek ‘Kristos’ but should be clearly distinguished from the Catholic symbolic ‘Christ.’ Literal meaning: ‘anointed one,’ usually referring to one anointed as king of Yisrael, or as priest or prophet. However, when used as a name, it refers to the Son of YHWH, whom he anointed as the ultimate King of Yisrael, the Everlasting High Priest, and the Prophet who would speak YHWH’s words to his people, and if anyone does not obey him, YHWH himself will cut off that person from among his people. See Deu. 18:18.

Matithyahu

Hebrew name for ‘Matthew’

Miryam

Hebrew name for ‘Mary’

Mitsrayim

Hebrew name for ‘Egypt’

Mosheh

Hebrew name for ‘Moses’

Nephesh

(pl. nephashoth) Lit. “breath,” means ‘life,’ or ‘soul,’ etc. – take note, not the Greek understanding of ‘soul’.

Notsri	Hebrew word for 'Nazarene'
Perushim	'Pharisees'
Pesach	Hebrew name for 'Passover'
Ruach Ha-Qodesh	Lit. "the Set-Apart Spirit"
Sedom	Hebrew name for 'Sodom'
Shabbath	The Hebrew name for 'Sabbath'
Shalom	Lit. "wholeness," "completeness" or "well-being," can also mean "peace." 'Shalom' was also used as a greeting.
Talmid	(Pl. talmidim) Usually translated as "disciples." The Hebrew "Talmid" is a student who learns from his teacher and follows his example.
Tanach	Hebrew name for the 'Old Testament' Scriptures, acronym for 'Torah, Nevi'im and Kethuvim.'
Torah	The Hebrew word 'Torah' means instruction. The Creator gave his perfect and everlasting Torah (instructions) to Mosheh. When Torah is used as a name, it refers to the first five books of the Bible (The Pentateuch), or by extension, the entire O.T.
Tsadiqim	Sadducees
Tsaduqim	"Tsaduqim" is the original Hebrew word for 'Sadducees,' and literally means 'Zadokites' or 'descendants of Tsadoq,' i.e. Zadok the priest. See e.g. Eze. 44:15. In these Hebrew Gospels this word is normally spelled as 'Tsadiqim' meaning 'Righteous Ones.' The two alternative spellings are a play on words, it seems that the 'Sadducees' enjoyed being called 'Righteous Ones.'
Tsidon	Hebrew name for 'Sidon'

Tsor	Hebrew name for 'Tyre'
Ya'aqov	Hebrew name for 'Jacob'
Yardein	Hebrew name for 'Jordan'
Yehudah	Hebrew name for 'Judah' or 'Judea'
Yehudim	Hebrew name for 'Jews'
Yerushalayim	Hebrew name for 'Jerusalem'
Yeshayah	Hebrew name for 'Isaiah'
Yeshua	Hebrew name for 'Jesus.' 'Yeshua' is short for 'Yehoshua,' which means 'Yah is Salvation,' see Mat. 1:21.
YHWH	The Hebrew manuscript has " Ha-Shem ," which literally means "The Name." Still today many Jews will read " Ha-Shem " when they see the Hebrew יהוה. We have replaced " Ha-Shem " with transliterated consonants of 'the Name' itself: YHWH. As for pronunciation, the only grammatically possible pronunciation, from which all other abbreviations/contractions can be formed, is 'Yah-weh.'
Yirmeyahu	Hebrew name for 'Jeremiah'
Yisrael	Hebrew name for 'Israel'
Yitschaq	Hebrew name for 'Isaac'
Yoseph	Hebrew name for 'Joseph'
Yochanan	Hebrew name for 'John'
Zavdai	Hebrew name for 'Zebedee'
Zevulun	Hebrew name for 'Zebulon'